

Terms and Conditions

Pacific Medical uses the most effective delivery service to guarantee that your order arrives on time and in excellent condition. Products are shipped same day unless item is out of stock or discontinued. Shipping charges are determined by carrier based on weight, location and desired shipping method. Pacific Medical is not responsible for lost or damaged items due to carrier errors which are not in correspondence with Pacific Medical.

Pacific Medical reserves the right to discontinue or modify available products, at any time, without advance notice. Returns and exchanges are the sole discretion of Pacific Medical based on condition, warranty, and purchase date. Pacific Medical is not responsible for shipping cost on any returned or exchanged items when the return or the exchange is not warranted on any of these conditions.

Pacific Medical, the Pacific Medical logo, and all products appearing in catalogue are among the trademarks and/or service marks owned by Pacific Medical LLC, and its subsidiaries or affiliates. No trademark, service mark or any license is granted in connection with the materials contained within the catalogue.

Single patient use disposables reduce the risk of cross contamination from reusable cables and leads, improving patient care and cost control

- Full compatible with all ECG trunk cables no extra adapter required
- Built-in ribbon cable for patient comfort and ease of use
- Easy to read labeling facilitates easy connection and lead placement
- Unique light blue color indicates the single use

4 ECG Lead Adapters

The unique design of these ECG lead wire adapters enable hospital to use one type of lead wires to fit all OEM cables by attaching the proper ECG adapter to the trunk cable.

No confusion on lead wires any more!
