Kids' acts could land parents in jail

In an effort to combat juvenile delinquency and to curb gang graffiti, Westland city officials are considering new legislation aimed at making parents more responsible. Parents could face fines, or even jail, under the misdemeanor ordinances.

By DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

Westland parents could be held responsible for delinquent acts committed by their children under a new ordinance proposed by city police officials.

A companion piece of legislation would punish offenders who deface buildings with graffiti. Property owners would be forced to remove the graffiti, but they could seek restitution from those convicted of such acts.

The two measures will be discussed by the Westland City Council during a series of study sessions scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. today at city hall. Debate on the graffiti and "parental responsibility" ordinances is expected to start at 7:30 p.m.

"It's a way of trying to attack a problem by getting the attention of parents," police Chief Emery Price said Friday. "We're asking parents to start being responsible, to the best of their ability, for their kids."

One council member, David Cox, has already voiced opposition to the proposed ordinances, partly because he fears they could lead to lawsuits against the city.

"I'm not interested in spending people's money to test what I think is questionable legislation," he said Friday.

Moreover, Cox said that many parents can't control their delinquent teenagers.

"There are 16-year-old children out there who are terrorizing their parents," he said, adding later, "There are people out there who are cowering in their own homes" because they fear their own children.

Cox suggested holding off on adopting new legislation until the city's new Youth Gang Task Force, in the process of being formed, has a chance

Credit Union gets new home

Continued Community Federal Credit Union will have a new home by year's end.

"The ceremonial turning over of the soil is our signal of hope," said Linda Hanson, CFCU president and CEO, at the recent ground-breaking.

"It reminds us that nothing is stronger than the ground on which it is built and where you choose to build is as important as what you choose to build."

"We are confident that the project we are about to begin on this site will be a symbol of service to our members and the communities of Garden City and Dearborn Heights."

The new building will be located at the corner of Middlebelt Road and Inker Road, west of Inker Road.

The ceremonial turning over of the soil was held at 10 a.m. and was attended by Hanson, administrators and staff.

Continued Community Inc. is the general contractor for the building, expected to be completed by the end of the year, Hanson said.

Therapeutic program leads her to career

By LEONARD POGER
EDITOR

Margretta (Peg) Bramlet has fond memories of her year working as a recreation therapist with the nationally-known Tri-City Therapeutic program which served disabled persons from Garden City, Westland and Wayne.

Being one year away from completing the requirements for earning her bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation from Eastern Michigan University, Bramlet said the Tri-City program experience "solidified my decision to stay in the field (of health and education)."

At the time she worked with the program in 1985, Tri-City had won several national and state honors as being an outstanding effort in meeting the needs of disabled youngsters and adults from the three cities.

But Westland officials raised a question two years later on why it was spending their tax dollars for a program which served a disproportionate number of non-residents.

Initially, a fee was charged to Garden City and Wayne program patrons. Their participation dropped and eventually, the Tri-City program was scaled down to serve only Westland persons.

But Bramlet still has fond memories of working with the local youngsters and adults throughout 1985 before starting her career as a certified therapeutic recreation therapist with Madison Community Hospital in Madison Heights.

Two years later, in 1988, she held a similar position with the Margaret Montgomery Hospital, on Joy between Middlebelt and Inker Road, Westland.

The 42-year-old Westland woman now works for Michigan Health Care Corp., a private, non-profit organization, where she has been working with

DeHart under attack from state GOP committee

BY DARRYL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

Democratic state Rep. Eileen DeHart of Westland, in the seventh month of her two-year term, is already coming under attack from the Michigan Republican State Committee.

In a mailing sent to 18th District voters, the GOP committee charges that DeHart "doesn't seem to think creating jobs is all that important."

DeHart responded that she believes her constituents are tired of "lies" and said, "I must be doing something right, or they wouldn't be going after me."

"I think the people in the district are tired of this," she said by telephone Friday, referring to the mailing that attacks her record.

Republicans attacked DeHart for missing a vote earlier this year that provided $748 million for creating new jobs over the next five years.

DeHart responded in a brief telephone interview that she missed the roll call because she had long ago pledged to attend a senior citizens housing conference.

On another bill, the mailing claims that "at a time when we should be focused on retraining Michigan's workforce for the 21st century, Eileen DeHart voted to shift millions of dollars from job training programs to funding for the arts."

DeHart responded that the mailing "failed to mention" several key facts:

She said a Republican bill cut unemployment benefits for laid-off workers by more than $500 million over five years. She said she voted for an alternative bill that provided more than $700 million in unemployment tax breaks to business while protecting unemployment benefits for laid-off workers.

DeHart accused Republicans of cutting unemployment benefits

"when it wasn't necessary."

"While I stood up for both business and working families, the Republicans abandoned hard-working families, taking money from their pockets when it's needed most," she said in the prepared statement. "Now they play the dirty little political games my constituents — Democrats and Republicans — tell me they're fed up with."

On the outer fold of the mailing, the flier shows a Michigan

Employment Security Commission office with nobody lined out the door and says, "It looks like this today."

On the inside, it shows a line of people spilling from the doorway of the MESOC office and says, "If Eileen DeHart has her way, it could look like this tomorrow."

The mailing concludes: "Eileen DeHart: A poor record on jobs."

DeHart said by telephone that she believes her constituents will recognize the literature as "lies."

Until the new building is completed, the Garden City office at 6230 Middlebelt, just south of Maplewood, will remain open.

There is also an office at 23726 Joy, which is open 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday.

Both branches will be closed permanently when the new building opens its doors for business.

The Crestwood and Garden City Credit Unions announced their merger last winter.

The federally chartered financial cooperative owned and operated by its members has grown dramatically over the years. Following a merger last December between the Crestwood and Garden City Credit Unions, the operation now has 7,200 members and $17 million in assets.

The credit union in Garden City opened in the early 1960s with 79 members and assets of $3,480. When it joined the merger, it had grown to 1,500 members with assets of $1.4 million, according to John Santieu Jr., a board member who will continue to be on the board of the merged institution.

Crestwood was chartered 45 years ago to serve the members of Our Lady of Grace parish in Dearborn Heights.

CCFCU now provides financial services to the communities of Dearborn Heights and Garden City, and seven church congregations in neighboring cities. As a result of mergers and charter expansions, the membership has grown to 7,200.

Rzonca said her role is to implement board policy in the operation of the business.

Crestwood offers a variety of savings and lending products, financial planning and counseling services and several group insurance programs, she said.

Membership and assets have more than tripled during the preceding five years. This success has not come without difficulty. An aging, outdated building housing the operation is not adequate to serve the larger membership.

The main office of Crestwood was designed to accommodate the small church group of the original charter with no foresight to future growth. The main office is situated outside of the credit union's geographic boundaries.

The future success of the credit union depends upon the continued growth and profitability. Increased competition from banks, savings and loans, credit unions and other financial institutions continues to impact market share. Location is a vital determinant in solidifying Crestwood's niche in the community.

The new site on Warren Road is perfectly situated between the two communities served, Rzonca said.

It's no surprise that Bramlet is in a human services profession, although her first thoughts as a youngster was to be a teacher.

City council OKs pay raise for clerk

The Westland City Council has approved a 4.6 percent pay raise for City Clerk Diane Fritz, whose salary has increased from $58,431 to $61,160.

The salary hike is retroactive to Jan. 1, meaning Fritz will receive back pay for the last six months. She will be covered by the new salary through next June 30.

The pay increase brings Fritz in line with other department heads who are being paid top salaries under the current pay plan for city directors.

Fritz also will receive about $35,000 in fringe benefits, the same amount received by other department heads, Finance Director Michael Gorman said last week in response to a citizen's question during a Westland City Council meeting.

The council also approved pay increases for three employees in the Westland Youth Assistance Program, which helps troubled youths through such means as providing them with mentors and steering them to community services they need.

In a contract that expires next June 30, program coordinator

Ronaele Bowman has received a nearly 4-percent raise. Her salary has increased from $34,278 to $35,649.

A program assistant has received a 14.5-percent pay raise, with the salary climbing from $21,840 to $25,011, according to a city council memo.

A part-time clerical assistant in the Youth Assistance Program has received an 18.9 percent raise, with the pay climbing from $4,160 to $4,950, according to the council memo.

State purchase of trail is finalized

The state purchase of development rights on Sasasfras Trails nature preserve in Westland was signed by Gov. John Engler June 30, said State Sen. Loren Bennett, R-Canton.

The senator, whose district includes Westland, said he was pleased with the governor's approval of House Bill 4422, which enables the state to buy the property for continued recreational use under the Farmland and Open Space Preservation Act.

"This funding will ensure that children and other residents of the Wayne-Westland school district can continue to enjoy this area which will remain natural and undeveloped," Bennett said.

The 64-acre parcel of land is owned by the Wayne-Westland School District and contains both forest and wetlands. It is on the northeast corner of Palmer and Wildwood and adjoins the nearby Wildwood Center, a former elementary school.

Bennett praised the Friends of Sasasfras Trails, a local organization, for bringing the issue to his attention so that he was able to include the area in a series of recreational projects recently approved by the legislature.

"The prompt action of this dedicated group has allowed Westland to preserve a beautiful natural area in an urban setting for generations to come," Bennett said. "The Friends of Sasasfras Trails have demonstrated how individual involvement in the community can provide positive impact and results for the entire area. Grass roots involvement is the single most important step to forming successful state policy."

to study the problem.

Keith Madden, assistant Westland city attorney, said some cities already have such ordinances in place.

The parental responsibility ordinance states that parents, or legal guardians, have "a continuous responsibility to exercise reasonable control and supervision over the minor to prevent the minor from committing or participating in the commission of any delinquent act."

Parents cited for misdemeanors under the ordinance would be subject to maximum penalties of 90 days in jail and $500 fines.

In addition to holding parents responsible for juvenile delinquent acts, the measure would charge them with specific duties such as:

- Keeping illegal drugs out of the home.
- Keeping firearms out of the possession of minors, except those used for hunting under the supervision of parents.
- Requiring minors to obey the city's midnight curfew.
- Requiring children to attend school.
- Preventing minors from stealing property or from having stolen property in their possession.
- Seeking help from governmental authorities or private agencies to control problem minors.

Under the graffiti ordinance, anyone defacing property by actions such as spray-painting would also face misdemeanor charges.

Property owners would be required to remove the graffiti within 21 days of receiving written notice from the city building department, but they could seek restitution in an amount determined in Westland 18th District Court.

Price stressed that the proposed ordinance are intended to curb problems that have been on the increase. The measure isn't aimed at punishing responsible parents, he said.

Miniature golf course adds new attractions

BY MARY RODRIQUE
STAFF WRITER

Players visiting the Ford Road Miniature Golf Course in Garden City will notice a major facelift this summer.

Four water attractions and new lighting have been added to the popular family attraction at 29060 Ford at Central, one block east of Middlebelt.

"It looks lovely," said owner Pat Bicknell. "I've had a lot of positive comments from golfers. There's something about the sound of running water. Everyone just loves it."

Bicknell has owned the course since 1967. The course itself has been there for 32 years. "My son, William Bicknell, and his construction crew were the contractors," she added. "They worked during the mild winter and early spring. Everything is hand-crafted. It's all their original creations."

There is a multi-level rock waterfall, a single-level waterfall, a castle with water in three areas, and a volcano near the 18th hole featuring various colors.

"The holes haven't changed," Bicknell said. "The course is challenging, but not too challenging. We have a lot of children playing so we don't want the course too difficult. The additions are added attractions, they don't alter the holes."

Bicknell declined to put a dollar amount on the renovation project. But she did say her operation has managed to keep prices at last year's level. It costs $3 per player before 6 p.m. for all players — children and adults — and $4 per player after 6 p.m.

Hours of operation are 10 a.m. to midnight, seven days a week. Promotions include winning a free game for a hole in one shot on the 18th hole, and a free game for the low scorer in a foursome.

There are also several contests. Currently, two senior citizens hold the record for shooting games of 39, which is five strokes below par, she said.

Besides the water attractions, the lighting has been upgraded. Old-fashioned pipe lighting has been replaced with two different sized lights — coach lights and the brighter 25-foot lights for full illumination.

"It's more efficient lighting and it can create atmosphere," said Bicknell, whose son and grandchildren help out at the course.

Chilly weather in April delayed the opening of the course. It has been open since May and will continue through September. In October, it will scale back hours to Thursday through Sunday.

"The course is challenging, but not too challenging. We have a lot of children playing so we don't want the course too difficult. The additions are added attractions, they don't alter the holes."

Hearing scheduled in traffic fatality

A Westland man is expected to learn Wednesday whether he will have to stand trial for negligent homicide in the traffic death of a 5-year-old Westland girl.

Steven Kemp, 37, is scheduled for a preliminary hearing in Westland 18th District Court for the May 24 death of Michelle Pierce, who suffered a broken neck in a two-car accident on Wayne Road just south of Ford.

Kemp had been scheduled for a hearing Thursday, but it was postponed for six days because a Wayne County medical examiner was in another court and was unavailable to testify.

A not-guilty plea has been placed on record for Kemp, who remains free on a personal bond.

Kemp is accused of pulling in front of Michelle Pierce's mother while she was driving south of the Wayne-Ford intersection at 7:25 a.m. May 24. Kemp, leaving a convenience store, was crossing the southbound lanes in an attempt to drive north on Wayne, Westland police officer Jack McIntosh said.

Michelle Pierce, who wasn't restrained while sitting in the front passenger seat, suffered a broken neck and died after being airlifted to the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, McIntosh said.

Westland natives are House staffers

State Rep. Eileen DeHart, D-Westland, has announced the hiring of two Westland natives as legislative aides.

"When constituents call my office with concerns, I think it's important that the person answering the phone has a working knowledge of the 18th District," DeHart said.

"P.J. Pettipren and Rebecca Poger have lived in Westland all their lives. They know the community, and they know the people."

Patricia "P.J." Pettipren is a 30-year resident of Westland, where she attended John Glenn High School.

Pettipren, who received her bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, is working toward her master's degree in public administration at Wayne State University.

Pettipren has worked in various capacities for U.S. Sen. Carl Levin, D-Michigan, the National Women's Health Network and the Center for Public Policy Development in Washington, D.C.

Poger, 21, graduated from Churchill High School and Michigan State University's James Madison College, where she received her bachelor's degree with high honors two months ago.

At MSU, Poger was a page in the state House of Representatives, served an internship in Haifa, Israel, and served as an international trade assistant with the state commerce department.

"I am pleased to have both these talented women working in my office for the benefit of the people of the 18th District," DeHart said.

DeHart's Lansing office number is (517) 373-2576.

You're the star behind sunglasses

There was a time when you stopped at the drugstore on the way to the beach and picked up a pair of clip-on Polaroid sunglasses or some generic little plastic frames with green-tinted lenses. They were, after all, just to keep the glare at bay while you read the latest pocket romance, stretched out in the sand under a scorching sun.

Today, thanks to the keen-eyed vision and influence of Hollywood, fashion designers and rock stars, shades have become indispensable accessories that define a sense of style. At the same time, the emphasis is on total UV protection.

Imagine Tom Cruise without his Ray-Bans or Jack Nicholson sans shades. Elton John inspired eyewear designer Oliver Peoples to name a retro-styled pair of sunglasses after him. The sales benefit the Elton John AIDS Foundation. Designers such as Armani, Jil Sander, Carolina Herrera and Gianni Versace all lend their names to cutting-edge opticals.

Frames for you

We've all seen cool sunglasses that look great on movie stars or fashion models. But, how do we select the style that's best for us? How many times have you stood in front of a tiny mirror in a department store trying on dozens of frames and rejecting every last one?

Grace Gluskin to the rescue!

Grace Gluskin

A personal eyewear consultant, Gluskin conducts free workshops at Family Eye Care, 31154 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills. Her hands-on workshops impart tips on choosing the perfect pair of eyeglasses, including shape, color and size. Most importantly, Gluskin stresses 100-percent UV protection.

"Your sunglasses are just as important as sunscreen," says Gluskin. "Serious eye conditions are linked to ultraviolet rays."

Gray, she says, is the most accommodating lens color. But, if you're a skier or a hunter, choose yellow lenses. If you're a fisherman, opt for polarized lenses. Those who play contact sports need polycarbonate, impact resistant glasses.

The hottest sunglasses shape of the summer is the wrap. Though traditionally a sport-specific style, the wraparound has caught on in a big way as a fashion statement. At D.O.C. Optique in the Bloomfield Plaza, Telegraph and Maple, look for Oakley's futuristic E Wires and Bausch & Lomb's sleek Killer Loop Activ. These ultra-protection athletic styles block all ultraviolet light and curve with the shape of the head to shield eyes from weather conditions, like blowing sand. Also hip are Ray-Ban's funky Orbs.

Blasts from the past

The retro-look is still popular in small oval shapes with antique metal or vibrant-colored frames. The newest, says Nira at D.O.C., are Revve's small ovals with mirrored lenses, and the mirrors reflect more sun.

"Remember," says Gluskin, "your eyes are your most expressive feature and you want to frame them with the most flattering shape."

Where can I find?

Eureka! We found some!

Mrs. Wayne Hu of West Bloomfield wrote to Where Can I Find? seeking the classic brown-and-white cotton work socks with red heels manufactured by the Nelson Knitting Company of Rockford, Ill., since the 1940s.

Mrs. Hu said she wants to use the socks to make the stuffed monkey popularized by David Letterman during April's academy awards show. In one segment, a clip from the movie "Cabin Boy" shows Letterman selling sock monkeys on the street.

Mrs. Hu said she cannot find a phone listing for the Nelson Knitting Company in Rockford from directory assistance!

Well, our crack team of investigative journalists quickly solved the mystery after some interesting turns

A spokeswoman from the Rockford Chamber of Commerce explained that the Nelson Knitting Company went out of business years ago and sold its patents to Fox River Mills, Inc. of Osage, Iowa. All inquiries about the Redheel are directed there.

A spokeswoman for Fox River Mills in Osage, Jennifer Dow, said the company bought the rights to make the sock in 1985. "The Redheel is still made and sold by distributors to craft stores and lower-end shops for outdoorsmen," she said. "The Redheels cost about $4 a pair. Thanks to David Letterman, we're seeing a renewed interest in this product."

Two readers offered suggestions on where they've bought the sock locally, but one source has since gone out of business — the D&C dime store in Waterford. Kathleen Chambers of Farmington, a caterer, explained that she once made dozens of the monkey socks and dressed them as astronauts for a client's Christmas tree. Her supply of socks came from the old D&C.

Connie Witt called to report that Sam's Clothing Store at 207 E. Liberty in Ann Arbor still carries the Redheel. Store manager Kirk Hosmann confirmed it. "We've got those monkey socks in the traditional brown and white, or the newer blue and white, two pairs in a package for $5.95. We order them from the distributor in Osage." Here's the next shopping challenge:

"I've searched for several years to find sleeping bags (adult size) made of materials for warmth without weight and bulk, to use on motorcycles or while backpacking. Surely in this world of wonder, someone has put this on the market! Please help." Sincerely, Mrs. Hame of Westland.

If you know where Mrs. Hame can buy such a sleeping bag, please give Malls & Mainstreets a call at (810) 901-2567. We'll print your responses! You can fax an answer to (810) 644-1314. Or write Where Can I Find, c/o The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, 48009. New shopping challenges are also welcome through these avenues. Thank you!

And in an effort to woo you to your malls and mainstreets, shopping center owners, developers, managers, marketing directors, leasing agents and individual retailers are constantly evaluating and readjusting their whole industry.

"Everything is evolving. The biggest challenge is to be more professional and be able to see what's coming next," said Cynthia Kratchman, vice president for commercial leasing at Bleznak Associates in Farmington Hills. "If you're a step behind, you're too late."

Kratchman, the elected ICSC Michigan state director, drew a thumbnail sketch of the ever-changing retail picture to kick off the idea exchange.

"Hey big spender, where did you go?" the Bloomfield Township resident quoted from the headline of a Barron's magazine piece.

Her view is that the baby boomer segment of the population — and that unique point in history when it meshed with the time women began entering the work force — produced a unique surge in spending.

"So retailers kept expanding. We'll never have that again," she said.

Kratchman said now that expansion is no longer the issue, retailers should focus on what shoppers are looking for — value and quality for their families. And the shopping center industry is following that lead in many ways already she said, offering these examples:

■ You want to shop in a safe environment — that's why more money is being spent on security.

■ Women are firmly established in the market place — that's why store hours are expanded and merchandise is placed more conveniently.

■ Customers crave a sense of community — that's why there are now more and more community-based activities such as charitable benefits and special events.

■ People are working harder and have less time for fun as businesses reduce overhead — so entertainment has been worked into the shopping experience.

"Entertainment — we're really touting entertainment," Kratchman said. "Entertainment is the new traffic generator."

Visionary theaters, fantastical restaurants, virtual reality events and creative children's venues that are both entertaining and educational are all in the works. In states where gambling is legal, she reported that gaming in malls is on the horizon.

"And retailers themselves are becoming entertainers," Kratchman said. "Disney stores are one example. The new Speedo stores have a pool on the floor and swimmers hanging from the ceiling," she described.

One of the roundtables that shopping center conventioners could attend had to do with the role of entertainment in the retail environment. It was led by Joseph Vilsack, president of The Phoenix Partnership Ltd., Pittsburgh, a firm specializing in repositioning or refining shopping centers.

Shopping changed in 1989-90, he seconded Kratchman. Consumers became victims of the time crunch and transferred their interests to family and home.

"The amusement/entertainment issue didn't belong until the consumers made their shift," he said.

Vilsack sees entertainment, not as an end in itself, but as one piece in an extension of a shopping center's services to the family. He envisions it, for example, combined with a theater, child care, a children's shoe store and toy store.

He wants you to picture this: Driving your car up to the shopping center. A "family valet" opens your trunk and takes out the stroller. Later, all your purchases are relayed to the "family valet" who loads them in your car.

Then, picture this: Child care and a restaurant reserved for adults, complete with a monitor of the child care facility.

Unfortunately Gov. John Engler, new father of triplet girls, missed this part of the convention. He was featured luncheon speaker, stressing his administration's efforts to improve doing business in Michigan. He later met with several big chain retailers including Zany Brainy, which devotes 12,000 square feet to educational children's concepts.

Other popular roundtables, so you can spot the trends, were "The Future of Big Box Tenants," led by Joan Primo of The Strategic Edge in Southfield, and "Dealing with Restaurant Tenants," led by Bradley Rosenberg of LaKritz-Weber & Co., Southfield.

CLARIFICATION

Observer employee had friendly greeting for co-workers

BY MARY RODRIGUE
STAFF WRITER

For the 350-plus workers of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, maintenance supervisor Herb Allen always had a smile and a friendly greeting for those arriving for work.

Herb Allen, a Plymouth Township resident and longtime O&E employee, died Thursday morning of a massive heart attack suffered shortly after he arrived at the Livonia plant around 7 a.m. He was 66 years old.

He is remembered by friends and colleagues as a loyal, caring, hardworking man who never turned down a request for help.

"Herb oversaw the creation of this building back in 1969," recalled Jim Jimmerson, production manager. "He did everything — the plumbing, electrical, heating and cooling, carpentry work."

Jimmerson worked with Mr. Allen since 1966.

"He taught me how to run offset presses," Jimmerson said. "He always loved the newspaper and printing."

"He always did what needed to be done to get this paper out. It was common for him to stop in on Sunday morning and check his building. His daily routine was to walk the building to see if everything was OK. He would take on any project that was asked of him. I don't think I ever saw him mad at anybody, and I never saw him without a smile."

Born in Seco, Ky., Mr. Allen moved to Wixom with his family as a young man. He married Joyce 46 years ago and settled in Plymouth Township to raise two sons and a daughter.

He began his newspaper career as a pressman at the old Plymouth Mail on Aug. 20, 1951. The Plymouth Mail was purchased by Phillip Power in June 1966 to become part of what was then ONI (Observer Newspapers Inc.).

Allen's career was interrupted for a two-year stint in the U.S. Army, from January 1962 until his honorable discharge at rank of private first class in January 1964. At Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., he studied engineering and carpentry. He was also stationed in Alaska while in the service, and received medals for National Defense Service and Good Conduct.

"His temperament was amazing," said Jimmerson. "He never liked friction. He was so special. I don't know of anyone more dedicated to his job."

"He never liked the spotlight. He was kind of shy in that respect. For him, he was just doing what needed to be done."

Steve Kalder, assistant press supervisor, and a longtime colleague, described Mr. Allen as "humble and hardworking. He took his job to heart, and he never asked for anything. The man had so much knowledge about how a building runs. He was just an encyclopedia on building maintenance. He ran his department fair and would never turn down a request for help. There were 18 workers under Herb's direct control."

"When they broke ground for this building, he was involved in the planning, design, layout, heating and cooling. He had a hand in everything," Kalder said.

Mr. Allen rarely took sick leave and was always eager to learn something new.

"He was always there for everybody else, but he was a private person," Kalder said. "He never told us if he was hurting. He would still show up and work hard."

Another co-worker, Roger

Owens, recalled how Mr. Allen would quietly go about collecting toys for needy children every Christmas season.

"He is going to be missed by a lot of people," Owens said.

"He was one of a kind. He lived and breathed the O&E and with him a big part of our history is gone," said Richard Agnion, president of Suburban Communications Corp., the company which owns the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

Bob Juacino, who worked with Mr. Allen the past 13 years, called him "the most caring and concerned man I ever worked with. He always had time to sit down and listen. He could always find something good to say about everyone."

Outside of work, Mr. Allen and his wife enjoyed family vacations in Caseville and pool parties with friends, neighbors and family.

They also bowled on two leagues, the Eagles and the American Legion.

Mr. Allen was a member of the American Legion Post 147 in Northville.

In addition to his wife, Joyce, he is survived by his grown children, Herbert Ray of California, Brenda (Russell) Center of Livonia, and Keith of Plymouth Township; brothers, Warren Allen of Florida, Wilburn Allen of Florida, Charles Allen of Florida and Paul Allen of Michigan; sisters, Arbutus Bellefeuille of Tennessee and Ruth Walts of Florida.

Funeral services were at 11 a.m. Monday at Schrader Funeral Home in downtown Plymouth. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery in Plymouth.

Memorials may be sent to the American Heart Association of Michigan or the American Diabetes Association.

DEALING WITH TOOTH SENSITIVITY

Anyone who experiences pain when drinking hot or cold liquids is likely suffering from sensitive teeth. This discomfort usually arises when the tooth's outer layer of enamel erodes to the point where the underlying dentin is exposed. Channels or tubules in the dentin then enable hot and cold foods and liquids to stimulate the nerve. While tooth sensitivity can be calmed with such desensitizing products as special toothpastes, the best course of action is a preventive one. If gum erosion, malocclusion, or grinding of the teeth are at the root of the problem, they should be addressed. The use of fluoride toothpastes and mouthwashes is also helpful.

Let us at LIVONIA VILLAGE DENTAL ASSOCIATES determine if it's tooth sensitivity or a different dental problem that needs attention. We're located at 19171 Merriman Road, where we offer complete dental health services in a relaxed and friendly environment, with state of the art equipment. Smiles are our business. Let us help you keep yours. Please call 478-2110 to schedule a convenient appointment. Hrs.: Mon, Tue, Thu & Fri 8-5, Wed til 9 pm.

Meringue won't weep if you cook pie filling

Bonnie Malina of Garden City has problems with her cream pies. They become syrupy, and her meringue pies constantly "weep."
Cream pies become syrupy when the cornstarch is overcooked, or over beaten, or when there is too high a proportion of sugar in a recipe. For better success with cream pies, use only the amount of sugar called for, and dissolve cornstarch in a cold liquid called for in the recipe before adding it to the filling mixture. For best results, I recommend cooking the pie filling in a double boiler or very heavy saucepan to prevent over cooking. Liquid accumulates between meringue and a pie filling when the meringue does not reach a high enough temperature during baking to "set" the layer of meringue directly above the filling. Make sure the pie filling is very warm when the meringue is put on top, use the freshest egg whites, and a pinch of cream of tartar. Most importantly, make sure the meringue covers the pie to the crust to make a good "seal."
Mary Lou Fitzgerald of Westland wants a recipe for Fattoush salad. Fattoush is a Middle Eastern bread salad. Make the base in advance so that the flavors have a chance to mingle. Toss in the toasted pita bread and tomatoes just before serving.

FATTOUSH SALAD

- 1 small green pepper
- 1/2 cucumber, peeled, halved, seeded and diced
- 1 cup chopped scallions
- 3/4 cup parsley, chopped
- 1/4 cup mint leaves, chopped
- 1 cup arugula leaves
- 1 cup purslane, chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
- 1/3 cup olive oil
- 1 1/2 teaspoons ground sumac
- Salt and fresh ground black pepper to taste
- 3 medium ripe tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped
- 2 large pitas, split, toasted and broken into pieces

In a large salad bowl, combine the pepper, cucumber, scallions, parsley, mint, arugula and purslane. In a small bowl, combine the garlic, lemon juice, olive oil, sumac, salt and pepper. Toss with the ingredients in the salad bowl, cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate for up to 3 hours.
Ten minutes before serving, add the tomatoes and the pita. Toss to coat. Season with additional salt and pepper. You can substitute romaine lettuce for arugula and purslane.
Recipe from: "The Cooking of The Eastern Mediterranean" by Paula Wolfert.
Speaking of arugula, when was the last time you ventured out to the Ann Arbor Farmer's Market on Saturday morning? Exotic foodies will go crazy over their assortment of organic greens including arugula, frisee, and edible blossoms.
If you can find the Amtrack train station on Plymouth Road, you're just two blocks away from the Ann Arbor market. While you're there, join the masses who profess Zingerman's to be "The Best Deli in the Midwest," and I couldn't agree more! Try the no. 13 - Sherman's Sure Choice for a corned beef sandwich you'll never forget!
Jim Mandelson of Troy really enjoys strawberry pie, but can't stand the sickening sweet red gunk from processed cartons. It took a lot of searching Jim, but here's a recipe from momma's files. She claims it's close to Big Boy's topping.

STRAWBERRY PIE TOPPING

- 1 small box (3 ounces) strawberry Jell-O
 - 1 cup boiling water
 - 1/2 cup strawberry jam
 - 1/2 cup cold water
 - 4 tablespoons cornstarch
- Dissolve strawberry gelatin into 1 cup boiling water. Stir over low heat for 1 minute. Stir in strawberry jam. In a small jar with a lid, place 1/2 cup cold water and cornstarch. Shake until dissolved. Whisk into simmering strawberry filling. Whisk until mixture is thick and clear, about 4-5 minutes. Chill.
To make into a pie: spoon 1/3 of this mixture into a prebaked and cooled pie shell. Fill shell with fresh strawberries and top with remaining topping. Chill several hours or overnight.

Made with pride in Michigan

Gourmet products: Sam and Victoria Sommer display Victoria's Gourmet Apple Sauce and syrups, made without preservatives.

Fruity syrups in a jar

Taking the lid off sweet success

BY CHEF LARRY JANES • SPECIAL WRITER

For the past 15 years, Virginia Sommer's friends and relatives have been telling her that her chunky applesauce and apple syrup was just too good to be true. "Bottle it!" they said. Year after year Sommer, who lives in Oak Park, would "put up" a few jars, and give them away as gifts to friends and relatives.
Then in December, 1994, she and Sam, her husband of 14 years, decided that everything friends and relatives were saying about Virginia's sauce and syrups was true and they were in the gourmet food manufacturing business.
Virginia Sommer is CEO, owner, chief cook, bottle washer, label maker, purchasing agent, recipe tester, banker and spokesperson, just to mention a few titles, of V. Victoria's, Inc. Gourmet Syrups and Apple Products.
If you want to know how it's done folks, Virginia and hubby

Sam pick the raspberries and blueberries, cook syrups, prepare bottles, fill jars, label everything, box it and then take it around town doing all their own marketing. The product is made in the spotless kitchens of Mucky Duck Mustards in Sylvan Lake under the auspices of mom and pop Sommer's starched aprons, stainless steel spoons and commercial cookware.
"We do it all because we want to make the best tasting, freshest, purest product money can buy without preservatives or anything artificial," said Sommer, who had just returned from a product demonstration at Rocky Peanut Company in the Eastern Market area of Detroit.
V. Victoria's Gourmet Syrups, available in apple, apple raspberry and apple blueberry are to commercial syrups what Ben and Jerry's is to ice cream.
I bought a three pack recently at the Merchant of Vino in Birmingham and thought they were great on pancakes, waffles and French toast.

Then I talked with Sommer who informed me that the syrups make great glazes for pork, chicken, turkey and duck, not to mention as a topping for ice cream.
In addition to the Merchant of Vino, V. Victoria's is also available at Papa Joe's in Rochester, Nino Salvaggio's Strawberry Hill in Farmington Hills, Westborn Markets and even Frankenmuth.
Suggested retail is about $5.50 per jar, but trust me folks, it's worth every penny. Sommer's Gourmet Chunky Applesauce is reminiscent of homemade, rich tasting applesauce, perfectly spiced. It was like eating an apple pie from a jar. And should you enjoy the chunky applesauce au naturel, substituted in a muffin or quick bread recipe in place of half the recommended oil, and you'll think you've died and gone to heaven.
To date, Sommer has manufactured about 1,500 jars of her homemade product. Total start up costs hovered around $7,000, and although she's not seeing any profits yet, Sommer is confident that once folks try her gourmet syrups and sauces, they'll be hooked.

"Sure, the profit is a motivating factor," said Sommer, "but where else can you work along side your best friend (husband Sam) and make what you know is the best tasting product around?"
You might also find Sommer's product in some fifty gourmet baskets making their way around northern Michigan, especially in the Traverse City area.
"And the syrups and apple sauce make perfect hostess and shower gifts," said Sommer, "especially when coupled with a favorite recipe and ingredients for homemade pancakes or waffles."
One thing for sure, Sommer's marketing skills are as sweet as her syrups.

TRIP TO JAMAICA INSPIRES SPICY CHICKEN

BY RENEE SKOGLUND
SPECIAL WRITER

The only thing Lynn Fortin's home is missing is a banging screen door. She already has eight kids, a dog, two cats, two lizards, and a python named Jazz. "We had a hamster, but he recently passed on," she said.
To say the least, the Fortin household of Canton is a busy one. Especially in the summer. That's when her four youngest children, ages 10-13, play endless tag between the pool and the kitchen. That's also when her four oldest, ages 22 to 28, drop by with their own children hoping something good is cooking on the grill.

Family favorite: Lynn Fortin, surrounded by her large family, holds a platter of Jerk Chicken, a family favorite, especially in the summer.

BILL BEMBLE/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

"Most of the time we do eat outside," said Lynn. "With the pool, lots of times the older kids will just come over for dinner, and they will bring a dish to pass. We do a lot of that."
Served outside or inside, dinner is usually casual - and vocal. "It's always loud. We're a loud family," said daughter, Jenny, 13. And, as in most true-to-life large families, dinner is not always the result of community effort.
Lynn describes her husband, Gary, a millwright leader at Ford's Livonia transmission plant, as a "drive-through" guy whose culinary expertise peaks at grilled cheese. As for Jenny, Justin, Josh and Jared, their cooperation "depends on what they have in mind for their cash flow for the weekend."

Lynn, who teaches prenatal, childbirth and newborn care classes at Garden City Hospital, is an efficient shopper, hunting down sales and limiting trips to the grocery store to no more than once a week. She plans a family meal at least five times a week, but occasionally takes shortcuts; "Once a week we usually do have pizza on one of the nights I'm working," she said.
Her Jerk Chicken recipe resulted from a dream vacation to Jamaica over Easter. "It was a trip after 29 years of never leaving the children other than a trip to go have a child," she said laughing. "We were in a very remote part of Jamaica, so the recipes we got were kind of hard to decipher. They said a pinch of this, a pinch of that. That's why I purchased a cookbook, and the cook helped me. We were in a private villa."
Lynn has since made the spicy chicken dish three times. It has become a family favorite, especially with 10-year-old Jared. "It tastes good when it's spicy," he said. Jared also said his mom is considerate of those with more timid taste buds. "It isn't that spicy when we have nieces and nephews over."
Jenny also has made the Jerk Chicken, although she admits her results were far different than her mom's. At 11 p.m. one night a few weeks ago, she was faced with some hungry younger brothers. She had lost the pizza money. She removed some frozen chicken breasts from the freezer and covered them with tenderizer, believing that would help them thaw.
"The sauce was great, but the chicken didn't turn out too good," she said. She may try making Jerk Chicken again. Or she may just keep better track of the pizza money.

Ship out to sea with fixings for sailboat sailor's scampi

See Larry Janes' Taste Buds column on Taste front.
 ■ Marcy and Dave Darwin of West Bloomfield are searching for recipes that can be easily packed with "just the basics" for cooking on their sailboat.

Keep the shrimp frozen, and it will act like an ice block in the cooler. For a thicker sauce — dredge the defrosted shrimps with a little flour before sauteing!

SAILOR'S SCAMPI

- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 4 cloves garlic, chopped
- Salt and fresh ground pepper to taste
- 1 pound large shrimp, shelled and cleaned
- Juice of 1 fresh lemon or 4 tablespoons juice
- ¼ cup fresh parsley (optional)

Melt butter and oil in a skillet until hot. Add garlic and shrimps and cook until shrimps are opaque and nicely firm and pink, about 3-5 minutes. Add lemon juice and parsley, toss to coat. Season with salt and pepper. Serves 2-3. Great chilled as an appetizer too!

■ If you've got basil growing in your yard, here's a recipe to use it up before it bolts and gets bitter.

BASEL PESTO

- 1 ½ cups fresh basil leaves
- 2 cloves garlic
- ¼ cup pine nuts
- ¼ cup fresh grated Parmesan cheese
- ¼ cup olive oil

mesan cheese, and with machine running, slowly drizzle in olive oil until the consistency of soft butter is reached.

Pour over fresh pasta, baked potatoes or stirred into gaspacho for a great taste. Makes about 2 ¼ cups pesto.

■ Low fat pesto lovers? Why should we suffer? Try this!

NON-FAT PESTO

- ½ cup fresh basil leaves
- 2 tablespoons non-fat cream cheese
- 2 tablespoons non-fat sour cream
- 1 medium clove garlic, crushed
- Salt and fresh ground black pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients in a blender or food processor and process until smooth. Makes about ½ cup.

■ Monica Golden of Southfield wants to take a dessert Up-North that travels well, freezes and continues to taste great. Check out this recipe from "Bake and Freeze Desserts" by Elinor Klivans (1994) Morrow Publishers $25.

MAPLE APPLE WALNUT CRUNCH PIE

- ½ cup (packed) light brown sugar
- ¼ pound (1 stick) unsalted butter, melted
- ¼ cup oatmeal, (not quick

- cooking)
- ½ cup pure maple syrup
- 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 4 cups peeled and grated apples (about 7)
- ¼ cup whipping cream
- 1 unbaked 10-12 inch pie crust
- 1 ½ cups walnuts, coarsely chopped

Position an oven rack in the middle of the oven. Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. Place the brown sugar, melted butter, oatmeal, syrup, eggs, vanilla, grated apples and cream in a large bowl. Stir until well combined. Pour the filling into a frozen unbaked pie shell. Sprinkle walnuts over the top. Bake for 10 minutes. Reduce the heat to 350 degrees F, and continue baking 30-35 minutes more or until the pie looks puffy. Cool thoroughly to room temperature. Serves 8. To freeze: place plastic wrap tightly onto the cooled pie and then wrap gently with foil. Can be frozen for up to one month. Defrost the pie at room temperature. Unwrap and heat in a preheated oven set at 250 degrees F. for about 15 minutes. Pie is best if served warm. Serves 8.

■ On the other end of town, lovers of Mexican town will surely enjoy the Mercado beginning this Sunday and lasting every Sunday through Labor Day. Mexican food, crafts, dance and much more. Taco lovers alert: try the new "tacolateria" right next door to the Xochimilco gift shop on Bagley. They serve authentic tacos the way they're supposed to be served, not deep fat fried. For more information on the Mercado, and for the name of this new tacolateria, call (313) 842-0986.

Sirloin salad with cherries matches summer appetite

It's summertime and the cooking is easy. At least it can be, with the help of a delicious prize-winning beef recipe that is ideal for summer dining.

blue cheese. By adding beef — a great taste combination with blue cheese — Hodges expanded the concept into an entree salad with a distinctive Michigan flair.

Sirloin Salad with Dried Cherries is an appealing blend of sliced beef-sirloin steak, blue cheese, dried cherries, salad greens and pine nuts created by Cynthia Hodges of Ann Arbor.

Sirloin Salad with Dried Cherries takes just 40 minutes to prepare. Beef top sirloin is a great cut to stir-fry. Cut into thin strips and tossed with a seasoned dressing, the beef gains full flavor with just a short marinating time.

The recipe is one of 16 finalists in the 1995 National Beef Cook-Off. It took top honors in the Michigan Beef Cook-Off before advancing to the national competition and a chance to win $25,000.

The next National Beef Cook-Off will take place in 1997 in Tampa, Fla. For rules, write to National Beef Cook-Off Entry Information, 444 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., 60611.

Sirloin Salad with Dried Cherries is based on a "Martha's Vineyard" salad Hodges enjoys, which includes greens, pine nuts and

SIRLOIN SALAD WITH DRIED CHERRIES

Total preparation and cooking time: 30 minutes

Marinating time: — 30 minutes

1 boneless beef top sirloin steak, cut 1-inch thick (approximately 1 1/4 pounds)

4 small or 2 medium heads Boston lettuce, torn (approximately 8 cups)

1/4 cup crumbled blue cheese

1/2 cup dried cherries

1/2 cup pine nuts or coarsely chopped walnuts, toasted

Dressing: 1/4 cup olive oil

1/4 cup red wine vinegar

2 teaspoons minced garlic

1 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper

In medium bowl, whisk together dressing ingredients. Remove and reserve 1/4 cup; cover and refrigerate. Trim fat from beef steak. Cut steak lengthwise in half and then crosswise into 1/4-inch thick strips.

Remove beef from marinade; discard marinade. Heat large non-stick skillet over medium high heat until hot. Add beef (1/2 at a time) and stir-fry 1 to 2 minutes or until outside surface is no longer pink. (Do not overcook.)

Remove from skillet with slotted spoon.

In large bowl, combine lettuce and reserved dressing; toss to coat. Place on 4 individual plates. Arrange beef over lettuce; sprinkle with cheese, cherries and nuts. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings (serving size: 3 cups).

Cook's tip: To toast pine nuts or chopped walnuts, heat oven to 350 degrees F. Arrange nuts in even layer on baking pan; bake 7 to 8 minutes or until lightly browned, stirring occasionally.

Using V. Victoria's syrup gourmet delight

See related story on Taste front. From the kitchen of V. Victoria herself, here's Sommer's favorite way to use her Apple Raspberry Gourmet Syrup.

RASPBERRY GLAZED CHICKEN BREASTS

6 chicken breasts

1/2 cup apple juice

1/2 cup V. Victoria's apple raspberry syrup

2 teaspoons butter or margarine

1/4 cup almonds, silvered

Marinate chicken in apple juice for 2 hours. Spray a glass oven-proof casserole dish with non-stick cooking spray.

Drain chicken from marinade and place in prepared dish. Bake at 350 degrees, uncovered for 40 minutes.

Cook chicken an additional 10 minutes, basting with V. Victoria's Apple Raspberry Syrup. While chicken is cooking, heat butter or margarine in a heavy skillet and add almonds. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until almonds are golden, about 5 minutes. Sprinkle chicken with toasted almonds. Heat additional raspberry syrup and pass with chicken. Serves 4-6.

Recipe compliments of V. Victoria's Gourmet Syrups (Virginia Sommer, President)

Honda Odyssey Shines as Best Minivan Available to U.S. Buyers

When General Motors came up with the automatic sliding third door on its "dustbuster" minivans, I thought that was it. Thanks to the remote control on the door, I thought I had finally found a minivan that I, myself, would buy.

AAagh. Wrong. Go into the corner. Hang your head. Low.

OK, now I've found the perfect minivan. Perfect. One I would buy. In a heartbeat.

It's the 1995 Honda Odyssey, and it has — tah-dah! — six cupholders.

This is Honda's first try at packaging a minivan for the American consumer and it's done its homework. The made-in-Japan Odyssey scores an "A" on its first report card.

It's got four car-like doors that swing out wide so you can get your toddler out. From your side of the car, that is. No more reaching over that other seat to pull the kid out with one arm. With them screaming, "Ow! Moooooom!"

It's just so convenient. I

Road Test By Anne Fracassa

love the driver's-side passenger door.

I know, I'm gushing, and I hate test-drive columns that slobber all over the vehicle. But there's something here to gush about.

Because the door isn't all that makes this the perfect minivan for a family. It's low to the ground, so even grandma can get in without a fight, groan, moan or assist bar. It's got the lowest step-in height of any minivan on the market.

Interior packaging is superb.

Get this. There's a small glove box on the passenger side — just big enough for a couple of pairs of glasses and sunglasses and maybe a pair of gloves, of course. Under that is a larger storage box that can handle the Yellow Pages, your owner's manual, a couple of maps and two extra batteries for the obligatory car phone.

There's more.

Not only does it have side door pockets for miscellaneous juice boxes, toys and other miscellany, but also there's a fairly large storage container under the cupholder in front and another to the left of the steering column that can hold about 200 pennies. Not that you'd want 200 pennies in there. It's just that it can hold a lot, not just a couple of coins.

The front bucket seats are really comfy. My two toddlers loved the fact they could see out of the windows easily because the back buckets sit up high.

What I don't get is the third row of seats. It's impossible for anyone to get back there without a fight or a few scraped knees and elbows. And there isn't really enough cargo room in back of the seats with them up. We tried to get an infant's crib in the space and it just wouldn't fit.

But wait. A quick flick of the wrist and that back seat disappears into a well in the back, giving you ample cargo room to slip into a couple of subdivision garage sale events without a worry.

And even with the third seat in a passenger-carrying position, that well is ever-so-useful with the groceries. It's deep enough that it holds a couple weeks' worth of groceries, but still high enough that you won't worry about breaking your back to get them out.

The car-like ride is also classy, thanks to the 4-wheel double wishbone suspension. It's got dual airbags, 4-wheel anti-lock brakes, side impact beams that meet 1997 federal standards and 3-point seat belts at all outboard seating positions.

The only disappointment in this minivan is the power. It has none. The all-aluminum 2.2-liter 16-valve 4-cylinder engine produces only 140 horses. It's the same engine that's in the underpowered Accord. Step on the pedal and it takes a while to get up to speed. Although when it's does get past the initial first and second gear shifts, you've got enough punch to still get you on the freeway without a worry.

I guess I've driven too many V-8s lately and I'm spoiled.

The engine is also mated to Honda's own Grade Logic Control for the second, third and fourth gears. What it does, simply, is automatically adjust the transmission shifts when you're going uphill or downhill for better mileage.

Both the LX and EX models are equipped with the same engine coupled with 4-speed automatic transmissions. The Odyssey is EPA'd at 20 in the city and 24 on the highway. Not bad. Not spectacular, either.

One more complaint. The styling ain't the best. Functional, however.

The LX 7-passenger version sells for $22,985. The LX 6-passenger is $23,385. The LX's standard equipment includes effort-sensitive power rack-and-pinion steering, an adjustable steering column, front and rear air conditioning, cruise control, power mirrors, power windows, power door and tailgate locks, intermittent windshield wipers, rear washer/wipers, rear defroster, AM/FM stereo cassette and a digital clock positioned high on the instrument panel.

For $24,995, the EX version adds 15-inch alloy wheels, power sunroof, a better stereo, power seat adjustments on the driver's side, remote entry, map lights and body-colored side molding.

If anybody asks, tell them the Odyssey isn't just nice.

No, it's just about perfect.
