ANNOUNCEMENTS

YOU CAN STILL PARTICIPATE IN BINYAN HABAYT – AND GET A 2021 TAX RECEIPT

Six months ago we launched Binyan HaBAYT as a way of building the future of our Shul by addressing pressing financial realities. To date, 40 families have become Binyan HaBAYT participants.

In the past few months, the Shul has been able to embark on many projects including new learning and adult education programs, renovations to the Main Shul, and much needed roof repairs. While we look to the future with a sense of optimism, we recognize that there are still significant financial challenges to be tackled.

When you participate in Binyan HaBAYT you contribute annual membership dues greater than standard membership amounts. In appreciation, you will be recognized in various ways and will receive many important benefits. For participation levels and benefits, please see the accompanying chart or go to this link.

You can still become a Binyan HaBAYT builder. We invite you to become a pillar of the future and join a select corps of visionaries who are ensuring the success of our Shul. You will get a tax 2021 receipt for any contributions made this year.

To confirm your participation, or for more information, go to <https://www.bayt.ca/BinyanHabayt>. You can also speak to one of the following people:

Craig Guttman - craig@algood.com

Rosy Rosenzweig - rosy@stclairicecream.ca

Mitch Silverstein - MSilverstein@richter.ca

Moishe Posner - moishe@gmdwholesale.com

Chuck English - chuck@englishmarketingworks.com

INCOME TAX RECEIPTS

As 2021 draws to a close, we would like to remind you all that December 31st at 10 AM is the final date and time for the Shul office to receive payments and donations for them to be included on your tax receipt for the 2021 year.

Please contact the office or log in to your BAYT accounts to pay your outstanding pledges or any additional donations you would like to make before the year end.

Please remember that all donations will be happily receipted to the full extent permitted.

Thank you for your continued support of BAYT, and your help in building our future.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WEEKLY HALACHAH BY RABBI TORCZYNER

TORCZYNER@TORONTOTORAH.COM

May I move an active space heater or electric blanket on Shabbat?

There are two primary reasons to view these devices as muktzeh, but authorities are lenient regarding both issues:

One might view the wire conducting current as a flame, which is muktzeh. However, many authorities rule that such a wire does not have the same status as a flame.

One might view such a device as muktzeh if it were meant to be stationary, but these devices are meant to be moved.

Therefore, many Ashkenazi authorities permit moving these devices in order to benefit from their heat, so long as one is careful not to unplug them or alter their settings. Sephardic authorities tend to be strict, requiring that one move the heater by pushing it (carefully!) with one's foot. Of course, if there is any danger of a device starting a fire, move it immediately, by any means necessary.

Three other notes:

One may not turn these devices on or off on Shabbat, and one may not adjust their temperature settings. Therefore, some authorities require that the dial and plug be covered or otherwise marked as a reminder not to change or unplug them.

If a space heater has a safety feature which turns it off when the heater is lifted, one may not lift the heater at all.

If a space heater is thermostat-activated, and it is currently off, one should not move it into a colder space such that it will turn on immediately.

DVAR TORAH BY RABBI METZGER

cmetzger@torontotorah.com

Why did Yaakov bless Ephraim and Menashe with Hamalach HaGoel Oti Mikol Ra? Why do they get their blessing first? What does this song mean?

The full blessing begins one verse earlier, Breishit 48:15. Yaakov blesses Yosef and his children saying, "G-d, that my fathers Avraham and Yitzchak walked before Him; G-d that shepherded me, [Yaakov] throughout my entire life."

Throughout Yaakov's life, G-d sends angels to aid him at critical junctures. Albeit fleeing from Esav, when deciding to return to Israel, or upon return to the land of Israel. "Hamalach HaGoel" literally means 'the angel who redeemed me from all evil will bless the youths, and they will be called by my name, and the names of my fathers Avraham and Yitzchak, and multiply like fish amongst the land,' taken with the larger context, Yaakov is blessing Ephraim and Menashe that G-d will protect and keep them safe just like G-d has done for him. Yaakov blesses Ephraim and Menashe first because they are the grandchildren born into the tumultuous times in Egypt where Yosef thought that he was alone. Yaakov ensures that they too will be protected, and we do the same for our children when we tuck them in at night.
