

Let's Play Ball!

Join us to celebrate the opening of the Major League Baseball Season!

— In Person or Virtually —

Heath Village resident, Bill Blaskopf, a certified baseball nut, will share his entertaining PowerPoint presentation "Strange but True" baseball facts.

You will learn such "useful" trivia as which team was the first to wear uniform numbers and what is the meaning behind the numbers.

Bill will also discuss the rule changes taking place this season.

Remember to wear your favorite team's baseball shirt if you have one!

Friday, March 31st

1:00 pm

at

Heath Village

Light refreshments will be served.

RSVP is required. To register, please call 908.684.5009.

If joining virtually, guests will receive a Zoom link the morning of the event.
