FRANCISE LAW DROPPED AS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS ACCIDENT?

An accident occurred this morning on West Eighth street in which an automobile owned by the Metropolitan Automobile Company was damaged to the extent of perhaps two hundred dollars, the blame for which is a difficult matter to place.

Chasney Lant, a chauffeur for the automobile concern, while driving west on Eighth street was alarmed at the sudden splitting of a falling limb from a tree on that thoroughfare and turned his machine so sharply to avoid being struck that he ran the car into a tree, most likely curbing, breaking the radiator and lamps and otherwise damaging it.

Street Commissioner Andrew J. Garvin, upon receiving the accident, immediately started to investigate in an attempt to place the blame, but he found the task a difficult one as it appears that no one was actually in charge of the tree trimming at the moment the accident happened. At least it was impossible to attach any blame to the man employed by the W. G. Gibson, as far as he could ascertain.

An Italian who claimed to be doing some work for someone else was highly suspicious of the accident, claiming trees for Mrs. George H. Babcock, none of whom could give any adequate opinion as to who was responsible for the accident.

The water question was also discussed. F. A. Duttonhofer again urged that the people of Scotch Plains, introduced a resolution, placing the society on record as being opposed to the present twenty-year limit law. It was unanimously adopted.

Plainfield and Morristown to Be More Closely Connected by Macadam Road.

The road committee of the Somerset County Board of Freeholders made a tour yesterday of the county and inspected the districts where new roads will be built and improvements made this season. In all the board will build fourteen and one-half miles of new roads, the most important thoroughfare being the one that will extend from the Watchung River, connecting with the Morris county road.

The road will be a big benefit to this city and the borough as it will be a connecting link to Morris county and will be a gateway for borough and city to the mountain resorts. It will also provide a short cut to Morristown, and under present conditions, it is necessary for travelers to go to the road to Springfield and the over mountain route to Morristown, a distance of about twenty-eight miles.

Civic Society Adopts Resolution Opposing the 20 Year Limit Act.

The Plainfield Civic Society at its meeting last night went on record as being in favor of the revival of the old charter of the "Plainfield Horse Car Railroad Company" which will permit the building of a line connecting this city with Metuchen, Warrenville, Dandelion, New Market and South Plainfield. A committee will be appointed to push the matter along with other civic organizations at a hearing which will be given the measure in the near future at Trenton.

In agitating for an extension to the charter of the company, Peter W. McDonough, of South Plainfield, introduced a resolution, placing the society on record as being opposed to the present twenty-year limit law. It was unanimously adopted.

The water question was also discussed. F. A. Duttonhofer again urged that the people of Scotch Plains, introduced a resolution, placing the society on record as being opposed to the present twenty-year limit law. It was unanimously adopted.

Work on New Edifice to Be Started Soon.

The trustees of St. Joseph's church are engaged in making preparations for the erection of a new stone edifice on the site of the present rectory which they think it would be to the benefit of the city and a source of information to prospective home seekers. He predicted that if the new edifice were to be erected together, Plainfield's population would be boosted to the 50,000 mark within five years.

Parents Hear Timely Advice on Children.

William D. Murray, a New York lawyer, who is superintendent of the primary department of the Crescent Academy, of 742 street, was invited to a student on the children's problem delivered an interesting talk on "Our Boys and Girls" before the Parents' Teachers' Association of the school last night. More than one hundred persons were present.

Murray said in his remarks that the period of adolescence is between twelve and eighteen years of children. He urged fathers and mothers to be more friendly to their boys and girls and to inquire into the companionship with other children.

When boys arrive at this stage in life said Mr. Murray, they go around in "gangs." A boy's father and mother has a right, and should see to it, that the boys know their father and mother, and are clear of bad associations.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. C. O. Murray, of 742 street, president of the association. All other business was suspended and the entire time was given to the address.

Highway Wages is Refused by Concern.

Thirty-five weavers in the employ of the Watchdog Silk Company went out on a strike yesterday afternoon following the refusal of the company to grant an increase in wages of one cent a yard. As a result of the action of the weavers the concern closed down its entire plant throwing fifteen other employes out of work.

The strikers and those ejected are men and girls. A Daily Press reporter called at the office of the company today, but the official charge was refused as giving out information as to the trouble. All he would admit was that a committee of the Weaver's Union demanded the increase yesterday afternoon and that the request was promptly refused. Then followed the walkout of the weavers.

All of the machinery in the mill is at a standstill. The report of the Daily Press reporter to the plant disclosed no scenes of excitement that generally accompany labor troubles. The weavers and their families were seen in the neighborhood of the mill and everything appeared peaceful.

Former Sheriff B. Frank Corbett, a brother of the concern, was approached by a Daily Press reporter, said that the company had a strike on its hands. He also admitted that the weavers applied for an increase in the scale but declared that it was impossible for the company to accede to their demands owing to the slackness of trade in the industry.

Some important changes are to occur on Park avenue among the businesses of the Trust Company's banking and North avenue between now and April 1. The store now occupied by Arthur DeBriard will be taken over by Arthur DeBriard and the Store, while Mr. DeBriard will move into the Boice-Raynon building.

It is believed that the Public Service Company will occupy the store vacated by Mr. Omsin if proper accommodations can be made in it for the company's needs. W. R. Causey, of the Trust Company, S. G., said this morning that the concern required more space and that if satisfactory alterations can be made the company will move a part of their present belongings there which will enable them to serve the public more satisfactorily.

Edmund Bushmore of the city, was among the members of the American Peace and Arbitration League who had the pleasure of personally greeting President Taft at Hotel Astor in New York last night. The dinner was given in honor of the President by the association.

Cab Damaged by Wagon. A United States Express wagon, driven by Norman Loughlin, collided with a cab owned by the Watchdog Silk Company near the North Avenue station yesterday afternoon at about 5 o'clock, in which the cab lost two hind wheels and the driver badly bent. No one was injured.

An Omission. In the report of the meeting of the Monday afternoon Club League, held at the home of Mrs. William G. Hamilton, of East Seventh street, Thursday afternoon, March 31, Mr. Champlain Riley will make an address on "Facts and Theories of Suffrage."

ELIQUET SPEAKERS AT TRINITY'S CLUB ENTERTAINMENT MEN AND WOMEN.

COLLABORATION THEIR THEM:

Plan for Local Option by S. S. Swackhamer—Mr. Martine's Opinion of Woman Suffrage.

If laughter is any criterion then the company of members and guests of the Dutch church which gathered in the Trinity school rooms for the first Reformation church Friday were care free and happy. The spontaneous bursts of laughter which followed the witty sallies of such joke-masters as Robert Clark, Jr., Rev. J. W. Gowen, Samuel S. Swackhamer, Rev. A. A. Pfanzstel and Rev. John Y. Brook. The occasion was the banquet given at which the members, wives and friends of the women were entertained and naturally the speeches which followed the feast were directed toward the feminine element in social, religious and domestic life.

Trinity was introduced by the president of the club, Fred S. Miller, in a few appropriate words and from the opening sentence of Mr. Clark's introductory speech to the last continual bursts of merriment interrupted by Mr. Clark's own humorous stories which seemed inexhaustible. He paid in a serious manner, a high tribute to the motherhood of the land and the daughters of Trinity in particular.

Rev. J. W. Gowen, pastor of Grove Reformed church, of Westhaver, in the most interesting and interesting of Mr. Clark, who had told of a story of a preacher carrying a hot sample of the infernal region, as being worse for the sinner than the infernal region and is forced to do business in Newark. "He goes from Paradise to hell every day." Dr. Gowen paid humorous attention to the other speakers, including Farmer "Jim" Martine, who later was induced to say a few words. Dr. Gowen also reverently referred to the day when it was celebrated on Thursday and said that there was a people who had the best conception of happiness and that was the Irish. He applied the Irish attitude toward making to the necessity for similar exhortation among members of the church for its maintenance and its growth.

There were to be found the sure foundation for persistent and successful work for the Master whom all should love and adore. It was a close race between the women of the church and the men as to which of the sexes was doing the most work for the Master. Mr. Clark, secretary, but this is an indication of the awakening which the church has long been looking for. It is a man's job as well as a woman's. Mr. Clark said, to keep the holiest and highest principles ever before them and strive for the ultimate good of all man.

Miss S. Ella Raybert sang a solo and encore after Dr. Gowen's speech, and then followed Rev. A. A. Pfanzstel, of Somerville, the pastor of the Trinity church, ancestors, requesting Trinity's pastor to close his discourse to avoid blushing.

Dr. Pfanzstel took a text upon which he elaborated in a most interesting manner. "Ye that are men love me." His talk was filled with the meaning of the words and asked the men of the club to provide for the support of the church and to urge the passage of the local option measure which has been under consideration for the past few years.

James E. Martine followed Mr. Swackhamer and paid his respects to woman suffrage in unmistakable terms. He denounced the movement as being unfeeling and hardly worthy of the support of women with sense. "Why should women," he asked, "loiter around the polls on election day when they could be at home attending to their babies and other household duties. Any woman's suffrage never comes to pass in Plainfield."

Rev. Mr. Brook in a few choice words answered to the toast: "Is it a good thing for one bird to flock alone?" pronounced by Toastmaster Clark and which was through the body of the toast.

Mr. Brook felt it incumbent upon himself to enlighten the company as to his opinion on the subject or to give Mr. Clark a diversion said that he believed in these banquets as they served to bring the congregation together and they ought to be encouraged as long as they were dispensed with the benediction after the

of a verse of "Auld Lang Syne" had been sung.

The banquet itself was a satisfactory and tastefully arranged menu, and it was served with unusual smoothness and with such a plan that entertained the diners. The attendance was greater than had been expected, but all who came were cared for. The guests were seated with flags and streamers of green and white intertwined between the pillars and arches. The speakers' front row of green streamers, including a harp which sat immediately in front of Toastmaster Clark. This harp formed the means of a joke by the host, Mr. Clark would have a chance to play.

Lawrence Kerwin, of Rock avenue, and Mrs. Annie Brand, of the same street, were in court Saturday to have their names added to the list of names to be presented by William G. DeMeza, for Mrs. Brand and Francis J. Blatz for Mr. Kerwin.

Mrs. Brand caused the appearance of Mr. Kerwin upon a charge of disorderly conduct in which she alleged that Kerwin used indecent and profane language to her in the street, at West Front street and Rock avenue last Tuesday afternoon. Kerwin denied the charge and brought affidavits from the witnesses to prove that he was not in the vicinity at the time of the alleged misconduct.

Mrs. Brand's six-year-old daughter, Dorothy, testified that she saw Kerwin on the street and that she saw him speak to her mother; that the judge was present and that she saw some truth in the allegations of Mrs. Brand. Judge Runyon suspended sentence reserving his decision until after the hearing in the turbulent district where encounters of the character indicated are frequent.

THE CITY COURT

When the stout barge, Louise G., tied up at the Wayne dock in Elizabeth on a tempestuous voyage from the Delaware capes Wednesday, Captain William Houtaling and his rood wife Sarah, determined to strike through the storm and a tour of Newark and nearby towns.

The sea trip was a lengthy one and on board the Louise G. the only provident incident to a short voyage was the fact that the captain, Captain William Houtaling and his rood wife Sarah, determined to strike through the storm and a tour of Newark and nearby towns.

EAST END'S RESIDENTS

IN COMPETITION FOR ROAD

The residents of the Netherwood section of the city desirous of securing lighting facilities at the Netherwood station, have prepared a petition which has already been signed by forty people, and it is the intention of sending it to W. C. Hope, general passenger agent of the New York Central, to get the road company to station a board kept open in the evening from 7 to 11 o'clock to accommodate the large number of people arriving and departing between the hours.

MRS. CHARLES

GOES TO HER REWARD

Mrs. Charles Matthews died early Saturday at her home, 49 Grove street. She had been ill for nearly three weeks and had been afflicted with paralysis. She was seventy-four years of age and was a native of Danwood, Pa.

Her husband, Charles Matthews, was a well known lawyer, and was a partner of the celebrated James T. Brady, in the practice of the law. Mrs. Matthews was a companion of the Hon. Charles Brady for many years. The couple were married fifty-one years ago. They had resided here for at least three decades and were prominent in society.

FOR LUNCHEON OR SUPPER.

Chesse Souffle—Take two cups of boiled rice and mix it with half a cupful of rich cream sauce and half a cupful of grated cheese. Season with a little salt. Fold in the yolks of three eggs, and beat thoroughly and beaten whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake for thirty-five or forty minutes, according to the size of the dish. When baked, be served as soon as it is puffed high and is nicely browned. Serve in ramekins, this makes a delicious entrée. Of course when baked in small dishes, it takes much less time to cook it.

THE EMBARRASSED GIRL.

If you are so shy that it is painful instead of trying to brazen it out or retiring into your shell, go in for enforcing self-forgetfulness.

It is not very serious of embarrassment. So one knows this better than the victim; yet often she fights no way to conquer her feelings. She shrinks from the attention of the boys by fighting her failings. Generally she errs in overdoing and appears proud, rude or aggressive, when in fact she is working hard to feel at ease.

BOYS' CLUB'S ANNUAL SUPPER

The Junior Boys' Club of Hope chanced to have a supper at the chapel, Wednesday evening, for the benefit of thirty-six members present. An excellent menu was enjoyed after the boys listened to interesting addresses by Rev. L. R. Howard, G. Herbert Condit, James Penney, William Doig and Charles G. August, guests and honorary members of the club.

ADVERTISE WITH MEDICINE

FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADVERTISING

For the purpose of advertising medicine, the publicity committee of the Board of Trade, of that town, which John R. Campbell is chairman, has adopted a plan to furnish merchants with free cuts to be used on their advertising matter. The cuts show the advantages of that seeking municipality.

DUNELLEN'S

HOMES WITH GARDENS

Let them show you what a home is with a garden.

DUNELLEN, N. J.

The idea has struck a popular chord among the merchants and storekeepers of the town and a plan to build a new home with a garden. The publicity committee also has planned to advertise the town by issuing and sending through the mails 50,000 postal cards during the coming summer.

FARMER'S WAGON AND BEAN POLES STOLEN

Henry Kennedy, a Striling farmer, encountered a piece of real hard luck Wednesday when he reported the theft of a wagon and about 2,000 cedar beanpoles.

Mr. Kennedy left Striling early Wednesday morning with a cargo of beanpoles for delivery to a Pleasanton farm. While coming down the Striling hill Mr. Kennedy's wagon struck a soft patch of ground with the result that two wheels of the vehicle sunk into the ground to a depth of two feet. Mr. Kennedy, although assisted by a number of farmers and the village constable, was unable to extricate the wagon from the mudhole and started back to his farm to secure another wagon.

HELLER & CO. OF NEW YORK

WIN FROM CHAS. ROGOFF

Judge William Newcomer handed down a decision in the District Court Thursday in the case of Heller & Co., of New York, against Charles Rogoff, of West Second street, giving the latter a $100,000 judgment for $32,750 and costs.

The plaintiffs claimed that Mr. Rogoff had not returned certain goods which he claimed to have sent in and which were the property of Heller & Co. of New York. The judgment was corroborated by one of the firm, which made the burden of proof fall upon Rogoff. The latter could not produce any direct evidence that the goods were returned to Heller & Co. and Judge Newcomer gave them a judgment for the amount stated above with costs.

DEATH OF PIONEER PLANNED RESIDENT

Andrew J. Rynd died at his home at South Plainfield, Wednesday, with gangrene, following an illness of six weeks. He was born in the seventeenth year and was a native of this city where he resided all his life, up to one year ago, when he removed to South Plainfield.

Mr. Rynd conducted a wheelright business at the latter place until his illness overtook him. For forty years he conducted a similar business at Samburg's Mills. He was born at the town of Samburg on Territory, and was a charter pupil of the old Jackson school house. Surviving him are a wife and five sons, Jesse, Kaiser, Joseph, Henry and Peter, all of whom reside in this city.

STRAW STRAW ON HATS.

Pompons of straw will be used for trimming hats. The smart, tailored straw hats this spring.

CORK DUST PILLOWS.

One need not necessarily use the old reliable feather in a pillow, for there are many substitutes which have proved somewhat satisfactory.

For instance, the cork dust used in packing fruit will make a fairly good pillow, and may be bought at most any grocer's or fruit dealer's. The cork dust is packed in a bag and spread it out in the sun to dry thoroughly before using.

Some of you no doubt have heard of and perhaps bought a cushion filled with fine pine needles. Pillows of this kind are known to be healthful and the pungent odor will frequently relieve headache.

Old letters cut into small pieces make the place of feathers, and again the pillow stuffed with rose leaves is a very desirable one for those who prefer the rose to pine needles. The rose leaves in the air, but not in the sun. Scatter olive powder over them and sprinkle with oil of roses. Allow the pillow to lie in the sun in an open box for several days before filling the pillow.

TO SWEEP A ROOM.

To sweep a room is little—but to get it ready for sweeping takes some time.

Each upholstered piece of furniture should be carefully brushed and plain polished surfaces wiped with a slightly damp cloth. If rubbed with a dry cloth and moved out of the room.

A paint brush is excellent to remove the dust that will lodge in carvings and crevices. Use a stiff brush or a wooden squeegee can be used. If there are moldings at the top of the wall, use a long-handled brush if it is perfectly clean. If it isn't, to a duster over it. Brush the ceiling and walls in the same way.

Do not open the windows till the actual sweeping is finished, or the current wind will scatter the dirt over the room again.

Sprinkle salt or tea leaves on the floor and work from the corners to the center of the room. The straw should be long, the broom always on the floor pushing the dirt before it, not setting it in motion by swinging it around.

DAINTY DESSERTS.

Boil some rice until it has become soft, then add of the pulp of oranges, some thin slices of banana and a few raisins. When the rice is almost hardened, when turned out, cover with powdered macaroons and serve with whipped cream or soft custard as a sauce. If desired, sugar to taste may be added to the rice with the fruit.

A ring of crumbled macaroons on toast, with a little cream, is most delicious. All the centre with whipped cream, and the outside with orange some kind of preserved fruit or maraschino cherries on the top just before serving.

Fill half a peach with a thick custard; or cover both with a thick custard; or if you prefer, fill the peach with the custard or whipped cream and maraschino cherries over the top. This is sure to prove palatable.

WHEN IRONING.

The backs of old kid gloves, sewn together and used as an interlining to kitchen or laundry iron, are invaluable. They most to giving protection to the hands without adding materially to the bulk of the iron. They are made of felt, flannel, blanket, serge or velvet, and may be used as the outer covering.

When heating flatirons it is always best to heat them in a container on the gas stove a few seconds, as the moisture found on the irons turns away when fully heated. This will also save labor in cleaning white ironing.

Instead of having an iron stand on which to rest your irons, use an ordinary bedstead for the purpose. The brick being a good non-conductor, the irons will retain their heat longer than if placed on an open stand.

NEW DESSERT.

Take one pound of best prunes; wash them thoroughly in hot water, then cover well with cold water and cook until they are tender, but not quite done. Drain them, and pour a cupful of water remain in the pan. To this add a half a cupful of flour, and mix thoroughly. Add a heaping tablespoonful of butter and add this to the prunes, stirring constantly. Then add a cupful of sugar and a cupful of English walnuts cut into large pieces and two teaspoonfuls of grape juice. Stir until the sauce thickens, and when desired the prunes may be seeded immediately after their hot-water bath.

"Message from the Cross" Deeply Impresses Large Congregation. AT GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Grace Episcopal church was nearly filled Monday night when the rector, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, gave a most introductory speech about the sacred cantata, "The Message from the Cross," which was admirably sung by the full male choir.

Like the rumblings of a distant thunder the first chords awoke a feeling of impending disaster. A sobbing and a breaking of the heart of tumultuous sounds the sweet plaintive voice of the tenor in recitative with a chromatic crescendo broke forth in a touching story of Christ's suffering for sinful man.

Perhaps no more mournful sound can be imagined than the music accompanying the story which was rendered in "On come and mourn with me a while," a plaintive cry from one of the waiting women and a wailing dirge which evoked the illusion that one is witnessing the agony and death of the Saviour on the Cross.

Throughout the cantata the sombre, overbearing thought of imminent disaster, emphasized by the emotion evoked by the world music which was sung in a touching manner, the anguish of the Lord and the final giving up after the torture are vividly portrayed. The various scenes were acted by the Talmay and Vincent Miner, and the trio by the Messrs. Talmay and Raymond Manley, and the work of Masters Arthur Martin, Benjamin Cooley and Carlyle Wright was finely done.

OF PLEASURES ABOARD Proof Positive By Jane Church Rosenberg.

Something of the interesting time former Mayor and Mrs. L. V. F. Randolph, are having aboard what may be gleaned from the instructive letter which Mr. Randolph has kindly sent to the editor at his request. The letter follows:

Tunisia was good to us, and we loved her. The entire North African littoral from Tunis to Tripoli is in a condition of advancement and prosperity, a fine example of French government. Algeria is a Department of France, and is governed by the Republic, so to speak; having her own Representatives in the Congress, or Parliament, at Paris.

From Tunis to Marseilles we crossed in a fortnight French coast of 2,300 miles. The trip was made in the General Chanzy (owned by the same line) which went to the bottom of the Mediterranean, with all her passengers extra one, a few weeks ago. The first two-thirds of our voyage proved a joy, the last third was as much of a misery as our worst enemy could wish to inflict on us.

A DAY OF PLUMS. It may be that the tariff on artificial flowers gave an impetus to feathered hats, for surely we are now wearing them in all shapes and sizes, and long, curled and straight, cut in many devious ways, and often made out of all resembling anything that grows in the earth.

Board of Trade Asks Council to Take Matter Up With North Plainfield.

The Duellen Board of Trade has an extremely busy session Monday afternoon, discussing several topics. One of the items on the agenda was a unanimous adoption of a resolution suggesting that Mayor William A. Sanford appoint a committee to confer with the North Plainfield sewer commission relative to the town co-operating with the borough in the installation of the proposed sewerage system.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting of the Board of Trade to send a committee to confer with the sewerage commission of the borough of North Plainfield on the subject of the proposed sewerage system. Address favoring the resolution were made by Wilson Frederick, Alvah A. Gray, F. D. Baerman and George J. M. H. Peters.

Plainfield has been placed on the motorcycle racing circuit and on Saturday afternoon April 16 a race meet will be conducted at the Plainfield Driving Park. Judging from the interest shown in the advertising of the new sport is sure to be a good one.

A LOVE TRAGEDY. Rusklin's Adoration of the Lovely, Rose La Touche.

In 1872, Rose La Touche, whose maiden name was French, but whose family were Irish. There sprang up between Rusklin and the young girl a very charming friendship, which, of course, was not a friendship, but a friendship. They wrote each other letters and exchanged drawings, and then for awhile they did not meet.

As foreseen, exclusively in the Daily Express last week the details of the new railroad station were taken up. The need of a new depot will be presented to the officials of the Jersey City and Hudson River Civic Committee, of which Dr. Edward Pennek is chairman.

During some tactical operations one of the ships of the squadron had made some bad blunders, and at length the admiral completely lost his temper. He stormed at his quartermaster and informed his bearers of his opinion of the blunders of the captain.

State Association President Makes Argument Before Local League.

The Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield met Monday at the home of Mrs. L. H. Tomlinson, 211 East Seventh Street, where there was a large attendance of women and some men. Mrs. Clara Laddey tells of the growth of the movement for votes for women—O. H. G. Leigh speaks.

Why do women want the ballot? Because the ballot is a tool to meet, to control, to influence, to improve our best now. As to means of forwarding the cause Mrs. Laddey spoke of the propriety of women taking an interest in the State or National American Women Suffrage Association, which in its turn is associated with the International organization, which represents twenty-three countries.

Referring to the English suffragettes Mrs. Laddey said: "We cannot imitate them, but we can emulate their spirit." In concluding her address she said that the women of government is wrong if it is not free and equal in the sight of the law.
