Verbs for Statements of Thought

o addhinzufügen"And I'm sure I'm right," he added.to admitzugeben"I took that slice of cake," she admitted.to agreezustimmenI aked her for more pocket money and she agreed.to announceankündigenThey announced that they were going to emigrate to Australia.to answer(be)antwortenHe dich' answer (my question). "No. I wont," she answered.to aguestreiten; behaupten"With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.to assurestreiten; behaupten"I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.to assureannehmen, vermutenI assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.to assureannehmen, vermutenI assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.to assureglaubenShe did not believe what he was telling him.to colmandbefehlen; abnotigen; verfügenThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week to much.to considerischaußern über; außernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a weet too much.to considerischaußern über; außernShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to decreean, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to diagreeinht einverstanden seinEven friends may diagree. He diagreed with mean saidto diagreeicht einverstanden seinEven friends may diagree. He diagreed with mean saidto considerichterien, endation seinEven friends may diagree. He diagreed with mean saidto considerichterien, ninds	English	German	Examples to agree   zustimmen   I asked her for more pocket money and she agreed.     to announce   ankündigen   They announced that they were going to emigrate to Australia.     to answer   (be)antworten   He didn't answer (my question), "No, I won't," she answered.     to approve (off)   billigen, gutheißen; annehmen   They approved of the candidate. We approved the minutes.     to ague   streiten; behaupten   "With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.     to ask   fragen; bitten   "I am absolutely innocent," he asserted in court.     to assume   annehmen, vermuten   I assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.     to assure   versichern, zusichern   She did not believe what he was telling him.     to colima   behaupten; sich berufen auf   The doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.     to command   befelien; abnötigen; verfügen   "Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.     to connifum   bestatigen   Can you confirm what happened? Have they -ed their reservation?     to consider   überlegen, Erwägung ziehen   "Ne is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.     to decare   an, verordnen, dekretieren   The besiderid decreaed a week of mourning.	to add	hinzufügen	"And I'm sure I'm right," he added.
to announce ankündigen They announced that they were going to emigrate to Australia.   to answer (be)antworten He didn't answer (my question). "No, I won't," she answered.   to approve (of) billigen, guthelißen; annehmen They approved of the candidate. We approved the minutes.   to argue streiten; behaupten "With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.   to ask fragen; bitten "I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.   to assure behaupten, beteuren I am absolutely innocent," he asserted in court.   to assure versichern, zusichern She assured me that it was the shortest way.   to believe glauben She did not believe what he was telling him.   to command befaupten; sich berufen auf The doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.   to command (on) sich außern über; außern She connuented (on the decision) that 80 hours a weet to much.   to consider überlegen, Erwägung ziehen She is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.   to decree an, veordnen, dekretieren The president decreed a week of murping.   to decree an, veordnen, dekretieren The president decreed a week of murping.   to decree nicht einverstanden	to admit	zugeben	"I took that slice of cake," she admitted.
to answer (be)antworten He didn't answer (my question). "No, I won't," she answered.   to approve (of) billigen, gutheißen; annehmen They approved of the candidate. We approved the minutes.   to argue streiten; behaupten "With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.   to ask fragen; bitten "I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.   to assure annehmen, vermuten I asume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.   to assure versichern, zusichern She assured me that it was the shortest way.   to believe glauben She did not believe what he was telling him.   to calim behaupten; sich berufen auf The doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.   to command befehlen; abnötigen; verfügen "Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.   to condude (from) (schluß/folgern He concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.   to condirm bestätigen Can you confirm what happened? Have they -ed their reservation?   to consider überlegen, Erwägung ziehen The president decreed a week of mourning.   to decree an-, verordnen, dekretieren The president decreed a week of mourning.   to difacre an-, verordnen, dekretieren	to agree	zustimmen	I asked her for more pocket money and she agreed.
to approve (of) billigen, guthelßen; annehmen They approved of the candidate. We approved the minutes.   to argue streiten; behaupten "With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.   to ask fragen; bitten "I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.   to assume annehmen, vermuten I assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.   to assure versichern, zusichern She assured me that it was the shortest way.   to believe glauben She did not believe what he was telling him.   to claim behaupten; sich berufen auf The doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.   to command befehlen; abnötigen; verfügen Doas I command (you)!" She commands our respect.   to condider ochlußern über; äußern She commented (on the decision) that 80 hours are dangerous.   to condider bestätigen Can you confirm what happened? Have they -ed their reservation.   to decare an-, verordnen, dekretieren The president decreed a week of mourning.   to decare an-, verordnen, dekretieren The president decreed a week of mourning.   to disagree nicht einverstanden sein Even friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and sald:   to disagree nicht einver	to announce	ankündigen	They announced that they were going to emigrate to Australia.
to arguestreiten, behaupten"With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.to askfragen; bitten"I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.to assumeannehmen, vermutenI assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.to assureversichern, zusichernShe assured me that it was the shortest way.to believeglaubenShe did not believe what he was telling him.to claimbehaupten; sich berufen aufThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verügen"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; außernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to condirmbestätigenCan you confirm what happened? Have they ~ed their reservation?to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to decreean-verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to dererean, verordnen, dekretierenHe poss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disagreedegegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disaptroved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(bejstreiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to dispute(bejstreiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there sign a long into directangelane, zu Leibe rücken <td< td=""><td>to answer</td><td>(be)antworten</td><td>He didn't answer (my question). "No, I won't," she answered.</td></td<>	to answer	(be)antworten	He didn't answer (my question). "No, I won't," she answered.
to ask fragen; bitten "I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.   to assert behaupten, beteuern "I am absolutely innocent," he asserted in court.   to assure annehmen, vermuten I assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.   to assure versichern, zusichern She assured me that it was the shortest way.   to believe glauben She did not believe what he was telling him.   to collim behaupten; sich berufen auf The doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.   to command os of the autor is albern über; autGrm Bo a I command (you)!" She commands our respect.   to comment (on) sich außern über; autGrm He concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours a wee too much.   to consider überlegen, Erwägung ziehen She is considering buying a car. He considers ther (as) an expert.   to declare erklaren, kundtun, versichern "If help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.   to deree an-verordnen, dekretieren The president decreed a week of mourning.   to direct anweisen; richten, lenken Her boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention to   to disaprove dagegen sei, mißbilligen She strongly disaptroved of my plan to buy a new computer.	to approve (of)	billigen, gutheißen; annehmen	They approved of the candidate. We approved the minutes.
to assertbehaupten, beteuern"I am absolutely innocent," he asserted in court.to assumeannehmen, vermutenI assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.to assureversichern, zusichernShe assured me that it was the shortest way.to believeglaubenShe did not believe what he was telling him.to claimbehaupten; sich berufen aufThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verfügen'Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours are dangerous.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern'I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disputeidagegen sei, mißbiligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dexplainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to disputesi	to argue	streiten; behaupten	"With that attitude you are going to fail the exam," she argued.
to assumeannehmen, vermutenI assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.to assureversichem, zusichemShe assured me that it was the shortest way.to believeglaubenShe did not believe what he was telling him.to claimbehaupten; sich berufen aufThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verfügen"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He coxiders her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern"Til help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disaptrovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to equire / inquiresich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to disputeandeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a	to ask	fragen; bitten	"I want to ask a question". He asked his boss for a pay increase.
to assureversichern, zusichernShe assured me that it was the shortest way.to believeglaubenShe did not believe what he was telling him.to claimbehaupten; sich berufen aufThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verfügen"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to deciareerklären, kundtun, versichen"TII help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to deciarean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to diagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disagrevovdagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to disaptrovesich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.She was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem.to disaptroveagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to disaptroveagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disputing that there's a problem. I disput	to assert	behaupten, beteuern	"I am absolutely innocent," he asserted in court.
to believeglaubenShe did not believe what he was telling him.to claimbehaupten; sich berufen aufThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verfügen"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to confirmbestätigenCan you confirm what happened? Have they ~ed their reservation?to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to decareeerklären, kundtun, versichern"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreeincht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to explainsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grapping with that problem for a long time.to explainandeuten, hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a	to assume	annehmen, vermuten	I assume you are innocent. Don't always assume the worst.
behaupten; sich berufen aufThe doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verfügen"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichem"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to dispute(be)streiten, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to explainsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grapping with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withandeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to disputeinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramati	to assure	versichern, zusichern	She assured me that it was the shortest way.
to commandbefehlen; abnötigen; verfügen"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to dereean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disagreeinicht einverstanden seinShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to disuptive(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to explasinerklären, erläuternLet me explasin the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to rigris withinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us	to believe	glauben	She did not believe what he was telling him.
to comment (on)sich äußern über; äußernShe commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to confirmbestätigenCan you confirm what happened? Have they -ed their reservation?to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to directabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to spressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. Let'	to claim	behaupten; sich berufen auf	The doctors claim that working 80 hours a week is dangerous.
to conclude (from)(schluß)folgernHe concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.to confirmbestätigenCan you confirm what happened? Have they ~ed their reservation?to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disaptrove(be)streiten, sich streiten übeNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to rindicatedeuten auf, andeutenWhat are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to informunterrichten; anweisen, instructShe instructs us in bi	to command	befehlen; abnötigen; verfügen	"Do as I command (you)!" She commands our respect.
to confirmbestätigenCan you confirm what happened? Have they ~ed their reservation?to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichen"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disaptrovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to informinformieren"The manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to informinformierenShe instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do. </td <td>to comment (on)</td> <td>sich äußern über; äußern</td> <td>She commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.</td>	to comment (on)	sich äußern über; äußern	She commented (on the decision) that 80 hours a were too much.
to considerüberlegen, Erwägung ziehenShe is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get toandeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to interruptunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterrichten; intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenS	to conclude (from)	(schluß)folgern	He concludes (from the findings) that 80 hours are dangerous.
to declareerklären, kundtun, versichern"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withandeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterrichten; intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to confirm	bestätigen	Can you confirm what happened? Have they ~ed their reservation?
to decreean-, verordnen, dekretierenThe president decreed a week of mourning.to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, instructieren"She uken what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to consider	überlegen, Erwägung ziehen	She is considering buying a car. He considers her (as) an expert.
to denyabstreiten, leugnenHe has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to disapprove(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to indicateangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, inst Wort fallen"I have a question," she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to declare	erklären, kundtun, versichern	"I'll help you!" he declared. The court declared the action illegal.
to directanweisen; richten, lenkenHer boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention toto disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to indicateandeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interrupteinschreiten, intervenieren"Shoudh't we help them?" she intervened.	to decree	an-, verordnen, dekretieren	The president decreed a week of mourning.
to disagreenicht einverstanden seinEven friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to indicatedeuten auf, andeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to deny	abstreiten, leugnen	He has denied any responsibility. She denied the reports.
to disapprovedagegen sei, mißbilligenShe strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenWhat are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to informinformierenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to interruptunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interrupteinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to direct	anweisen; richten, lenken	Her boss directed her to answer. He directed our attention to
to dispute(be)streiten, sich streiten überNobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interrupteinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to disagree	nicht einverstanden sein	Even friends may disagree. He disagreed with me and said:
to enquire / inquiresich erkundigen (nach)I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. The manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to disapprove	dagegen sei, mißbilligen	She strongly disapproved of my plan to buy a new computer.
to explainerklären, erläuternLet me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. The manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands. to informto informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do. "I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to dispute	(be)streiten, sich streiten über	Nobody is disputing that there's a problem. I dispute these figures.
to expressausdrücken zum A. bringen.Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. The manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interrupteinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to enquire / inquire	sich erkundigen (nach)	I'm going to call the station to enquire about the train times.
to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to grapple withsich auseinandersetzen mitHe had been grappling with that problem for a long time.to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. The manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to explain	erklären, erläutern	Let me explain the rules. She explained to them what to do next.
to come / get to grips withangehen, zu Leibe rückenShe was too discouraged to come to grips with the problem. Let's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem. The manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands. The manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"She knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to express	ausdrücken zum A. bringen.	Let me express my views. He couldn't express himself clearly.
grips withangenen, 20 Leibe ruckenLet's get to grips with this new challenge!to hint (at)andeuten; hindeuten (auf)What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to grapple with	sich auseinandersetzen mit	He had been grappling with that problem for a long time.
to indicatedeuten auf, andeutenThe manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".		angehen, zu Leibe rücken to informinformierenThe manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to hint (at)	andeuten; hindeuten (auf)	What are you hinting at? He hinted that there might be a problem.
to instructunterrichten; anweisen, instru.She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to indicate	deuten auf, andeuten	The manager indicated that he was going to meet the demands.
to interruptunterbrechen, ins Wort fallen"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, butto interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to inform	informieren	The manager informed us of dramatic drop in turnover.
to interveneeinschreiten, intervenieren"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.to knowwissen, kennenShe knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to instruct	unterrichten; anweisen, instru.	She instructs us in biology. She has instructed us what to do.
to know wissen, kennen She knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".	to interrupt	unterbrechen, ins Wort fallen	"I have a question," she interrupted. Sorry to interrupt, but to intervene	einschreiten, intervenieren	"Shouldn't we help them?" she intervened.
to learn lernen, erfahren l learn English. I've just learnt/learned who she is.	to know	wissen, kennen	She knew what he was going to say. He was known as the "King".
	to learn	lernen, erfahren	I learn English. I've just learnt/learned who she is.

statemnt.pdf

2	von	2

	I'll let you know tomorrow if I have time.
	He maintained (that) he had not killed the victim.
	He didn't mention it. Nobody mentioned anything to me about it.
murmeln; murren	"OK," he murmured. She kept murmuring about the accident.
nennen, bezeichnen	Can you name the Belgian capital? Name your price!
Einwände haben, protestieren	They object to this plan. He objected that the price was too high.
be(ob)achten; feststellen	I observed that it was too late for lunch.
ablehnen, entgegensetzen	She opposed her boss / all plans to dismiss the workers.
an-, verordnen; bestellen	The chairman ordered silence. The doctor orders me to take nachdenken über; erwägen	I pondered over her words. I pondered the consequences.
annehmen, vermuten	This notebook is very expensive, I presume? It is presumed that erklären, proklamieren	The president proclaimed a new era of mutual understanding.
vorschlagen; vorhaben	The manager proposed major changes in the company.
protestieren; beteuern	We must protest (against/at) this decision. He ~ed his innocence.
vorbringen, vorschlagen	Let me put forward another proposal. She put forward a candidate.
zitieren	Don't quote me! Can you quote any verses of the poem?
	Only human beings can reason. "This isn't logical," she rea- soned. We tried to reason with him / to ~ him out of / into doing beteuern; beruhigen	The doctor reassured me that nothing was wrong.
reflektieren; nachdenken über	I need more time to reflect. She reflected on the offer.
ab-, zurückweisen, ablehnen	I have to reject your claim. The candidates were rejected.
bemerken, eine B. machen	"This is a good idea," she remarked.
wiederholen	I had to repeat my question. "Are you sure," he repeated?
berichten	He reports seeing the accident. The crime was ~ed to the police.
sagen	"Hello!" she said. "That's a great idea," said Tom. It is said that schreien, rufen	He shouted to her across the room. "Watch out!" she shouted.
grübeln ( on = über)	We speculated about his reasons to quit / why he quit.
vortragen, nennen	He has stated his intention clearly. The facts are clearly stated.
vorschlagen, nahelegen	I suggest white wine. This mark suggests that you haven't learnt.
zusammenfassen, abschätzen	To sum up: We have 3 problems. Let me sum up the situation.
zusammenfassen	Please summarize the novel! He summarized the findings.
(unter)stützen; erhärten	We all support your proposal. The evidence supports his story.
annehmen, voraussetzen	You're right, I suppose. Suppose this is true, what should we do?
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Go tackle him about his debts! It's time to tackle my homework!
	He told the news to everybody. She told him what to do.
	The court is going to verify this statement. Her fears were verified.
wissen wollen	The policeman wants to know where you were and what you did on this evening. I'd (= would) like to know what you think about it.
	He warned us against thieves, i. e. not to leave our unattended.
warnen	He warned us against thieves, i. e. not to leave our unattended.
	murmeln; murren     nennen, bezeichnen     Einwände haben, protestieren     be(ob)achten; feststellen     ablehnen, entgegensetzen     an-, verordnen; bestellen     nachdenken über; erwägen     annehmen, vermuten     erklären, proklamieren     vorschlagen; vorhaben     protestieren; beteuern     vorbringen, vorschlagen     zitieren     logisch denken, vernünftig     reden (aus-, überreden)     beteuern; beruhigen     reflektieren; nachdenken über     ab-, zurückweisen, ablehnen     bemerken, eine B. machen     wiederholen     berichten     sagen     schreien, rufen     grübeln ( on = über)     vortragen, nennen     vorschlagen, nahelegen     zusammenfassen     (unter)stützen; erhärten     annehmen, voraussetzen     zur Rede stellen; in Angriff n.     erzählen; beauftragen