Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Haben uns die schönen, warmen Ostertage eben erst ein paar Tage purer Erholung geschenkt, so geht es gleich wieder in eine voll gepackte Woche bei der Laser Hotline. Nicht nur gilt es diesen Newsletter zu stemmen, vielmehr erwarten wir in dieser Woche auch noch eine Delegation aus "Good Old" England. Die etwa 40köpfige Mannschaft der "Cinema Theatre Association" will sich Kinos in und um Stuttgart herum anschauen, bevor sie schließlich weiter nach jetzt weitere Details bekannt. In einem amerikanischen Branchenblatt berichtete ein Journalist jüngst über seine Erfahrungen mit legalen Film-Downloads. Mit erschreckendem Ergebnis. Denn die Qualität der geprüften Filme entsprach gerade einmal VHS-Niveau! Da darf man sich natürlich schon die Frage stellen, wer im Zeitalter hochauflösenden Fernsehens und hochauflösender Blu-ray Discs einen Quantensprung zurück in die Steinzeit der Qualität machen möchte! Auch ist zu beobachten, dass in den USA bereits einige Studios dazu über-

München fährt. Bei der Suche nach einer kompetenten Kinoführung im Stuttgarter Raum sind die Organisatoren der Reise an uns herangetreten mit der Bitte, eine entsprechende Tour vorzubereiten und die Delegation dann auch vor Ort zu betreuen. Einer Bitte, der wir natürlich sehr gerne nachkommen! Während Sie jetzt also gerade dabei sind, diese Zeilen zu lesen, werden wir vermutlich schon zusammen mit den Gästen aus England (von uns liebevoll als "The British Invasion" bezeichnet!) die Kinos in der Region heimsuchen. Da darf es dann auch nicht weiter wundern, dass wir aufgrund dieses Fulltime Jobs unser Büro am Donnerstag, den 28. April, und am Freitag, den 29. April, geschlossen halten.

Aber damit erst einmal herzlich willkommen zu Ausgabe 290 unseres Newsletters. Hatten wir erst kürzlich noch darüber berichtet, dass man bei den amerikanischen Majors dabei ist, sich vom physischen Datenträger zu verabschieden und sich diversen Download-Angeboten hinzuwenden, so wurden gegangen sind, ihre Filme für Low Budget Labels zu lizenzieren. Diese Low Budget Labels bieten die Filme dann zwar auf DVD und Blu-ray Disc zu sensationell günstigen Preisen an, jedoch mit teilweise erschreckend schlechter Bild- und Tonqualität. So klagte uns einer unserer Kunden vor ein paar Tagen sein Leid über das falsche Bild- und Tonformat beim amerikanischen Blu-ray Release des Films THE YARDS, der bei Echo Bridge Home Entertainment unter Lizenz von Miramax veröffentlicht wurde. Derlei Hiobsbotschaften lassen momentan eigentlich nur noch einen sehr pessimistischen Blick in die Zukunft des Home Entertainments zu. Soll es das jetzt etwa gewesen sein für uns anspruchsvolle Filmsammler? Keine Frage: wer gerne im Mainstream schwimmt, den werden die US-Studios auch in Zukunft mit blauen Scheiben versorgen. Doch ob auch die wirklich guten Filme noch eine Chance bekommen, das darf angezweifelt werden. Aber die Hoffnung stirbt bekanntermaßen zuletzt.

Ihr Laser Hotline Team

Ja und Amen

Während der Osterfeiertage sah ich mir mehrere Filme an, die ich in den letzten Jahren verpasst habe. Der Zufall wollte es, dass dies, passend zu unserem Brauch, den Tod und die Auferstehung Christi mit Schokolade zu feiern, Filme waren, die einen religiösen Hintergrund haben. Statt angenehmer Stunden, taten sich jede Menge Fragen auf.

So wie heutige Superhelden-Filme die Ängste unserer Zeit widerspiegeln (Radioaktivität, Terrorismus), so spiegeln Filme wie The Box, The Book of Eli, Shelter und Legion den religiösen Wahnsinn wider, der die USA plagt.

Das erste Problem ist, dass Fakten in den Müll wandern. Es geht nicht mehr um Tatsachen, sondern Glauben. Diskussionen und Kompromisse sind nicht mehr möglich in einem Klima, in dem nur zählt, wie fest man an etwas glaubt und wie viele Menschen man davon überzeugen kann, einem zu folgen. Nur gibt es in den USA solch vielfältige christliche Glaubensrichtungen, dass man nie auf einen grünen Zweig kommt. Das Hauptproblem der fundamentalistischen Muslime scheint zu sein, dass sie den Koran auslegen, wie sie wollen. Daraus entstehen dann schreckliche Gesetze und Lebensarten. Die amerikanischen Christen aber tun genau dasselbe mit ihrer Bibel. Sie suchen sich aus, was ihnen gefällt und machen es für ihre Weltansicht passend. So entsteht ein Film wie Shelter, in dem Julianne Moore eine Psychologin spielt, die einerseits eine Top-Wissenschaftlerin, Supermutter und kritisch denkende Frau ist, andererseits aber ihren Glauben zum Atmen braucht. Das Ganze hat den Beigeschmack von Werbung fürs Christsein. In Shelter stirbt Moores kleine Tochter, weil sie ihren Glauben verloren hat. Ihre Sünde: Sie hat den Tod ihres Vaters als Zeichen dafür gedeutet hat, dass es keinen Gott geben kann.

Der strafende Allmächtige ist das zweite Problem, welches die Religionswirren verschärft. Ständig wird vom liebenden Jesus gefaselt, doch in den Filmen tritt vor allem einer auf: der alttestamentarische, wütende Gottvater, der die ungehorsamen Kinder züchtigt. Doch im Alten Testament mochte er wenigstens einige seiner Zöglinge und wollte sie retten. Moses hat noch Bescheid bekommen, dass er lieber eine Arche bauen und seine Family mitsamt Tierchen retten solle. In Legion hat Gott endgültig die Schnauze voll von uns Ungeziefer und schickt besessene Zombie-Horden, um die Menschen auszulöschen. Aber Erzengel Michael weiß es besser als Gott! Er beschließt, ein ungeborenes Kind und dessen Familie zu retten, denn das Kind trägt das Potenzial in sich, die Menschheit zu läutern. Hätte der Allwissende das nicht ... wissen sollen? Dieser Film macht aus Gott selbst den Bösewicht, denn es ist ihm gleichgültig, dass da draußen noch ein Fünkchen Hoffnung schwebt. Am Ende sieht Gott ein, dass Michael recht hatte, beschließt aber, es der neuen Heiligen Familie trotzdem weiterhin mit Zombies schwer zu machen. Bitte, was?!

Verstörend ist Gottvater vor allem deshalb, weil sich amerikanische Christen immerzu an seiner Übermacht festhalten müssen. Eigenverantwortung wird nicht übernommen. Man selbst wird nur geleitet. Ab und zu bleibt die Frage offen, ob es nicht Aliens sind, die mit uns ihre Spielchen treiben – wie in The Box – aber stets ist es eine höhere Macht, die uns herumschiebt wie Schachfiguren. Die Debatte guter Gott/böser Gott hat mich schon lange sehr irritiert. Entscheidet Euch mal! Aber vielleicht ist es den Amerikanern egal, ob diese höhere Macht gutmütig ist oder nicht. Solange sie existiert, ist man moralisch aus dem Schneider.

Selbst in ihren politischen Entscheidungen folgen die Amerikaner dem Hollywood-Trend zum Konflikt mit Gott. Mit Barack Obama hatten sie sich einen Heiland erwählt. Jetzt kann er all die Hoffnungen, die in ihn gesetzt wurden, nicht erfüllen. Deshalb wird er zum Bösewicht. Dennoch hat er bisher gute Prognosen, wiedergewählt zu werden. Wir glauben an dich, Barack! Wenn wir nur fest genug glauben, wird er seine messianische Mission bestimmt vollbringen können!

Dass Obama, wie sein Vorgänger auch, jetzt an der Bildung spart, hat sich in Hollywood schon längst niedergeschlagen. In The Book of Eli ist die post-apokalyptische Welt auf einen nuklearen Religionskrieg zurückzuführen. Die Bibel, die Denzel Washington mit sich trägt, wird vom Bösewicht heiß begehrt, da dieser weiß, dass die biblischen Worte ihm Macht in der Bevölkerung bescherten werden. Washington verteidigt das Heilige Buch und bringt es der Intelligenzija, die die Zivilisation mit Hilfe von Mozart und Shakespeare wieder aufbauen möchte. Und mit den religiösen Büchern Koran, Talmud, Bibel. Ja, aus der Geschichte lernen wir lieber nichts! Es tut so gut sich wieder am Göttlichen orientieren zu können. Für das Land der Freiheit scheint mir das intellektuelle Selbstversklavung und ein Armutszeugnis zu sein.

Immerhin gibt es noch einige Vernunftsstimmen, so wie in Franklyn: "Wenn ein Gott den Willen hat, Böses zu verhindern, es aber nicht kann, dann ist er nicht allmächtig. Wenn er kann, aber nicht will, dann ist er böseartig. Wenn er weder kann noch will, wieso ihn dann einen Gott nennen?"

Familientragedie auf dem Baltikum

Den Auftakt zu einer sehr spärlich bestückten Pressewoche machte heute ein Film, von dem ich mir nicht viel versprochen habe und der mich eines Besseren belehrte.

DAS BLAUE VOM HIMMEL (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: NFP (Warner)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Hans Steinbichler

Darsteller: Juliane Köhler, Hannelore Elsner, Karoline Herfurth

Kinostart: 02.06.2011

Deutschland 1991. Als sie gerade dabei ist, eine Reportage über die Unruhen auf dem Baltikum anzufertigen, erhält die Berliner Redakteurin Sofia einen Anruf der Psychiatrie in Wuppertal. Dort wurde ihre äußerst aggressiv agierende Mutter Marga eingeliefert. Als Sofia ihrer Mutter gegenübersteht, erkennt die ihre Tochter schon längst nicht mehr. Marga lebt in der Vergangenheit und spricht nur wirres Zeug. Nach und nach jedoch gelingt es Sofia, Informationen aus ihr herauszukitzeln und so einem großen Familiengeheimnis auf die Spur zu kommen. Dieses führt sie geradewegs zu den Wurzeln ihrer Familie zurück – nach Lettland... Hans Steinbichler erzählt sein Familiendrama auf zwei Zeitebenen. Die erste führt uns zurück nach Lettland kurz vor Ausbruch des Zweiten Weltkriegs. Dort heiratet die junge Marga (hervorragend gespielt von Karoline Herfurth) den jungen Yuris. Der aber hat sich in eine andere Frau verliebt hat und löst damit die Tragödie aus. Denn als das Deutsche Reich alle deutschstämmigen Bürger aus Lettland in die Heimat zurückbeordert, verlässt Yuris Marga und bleibt in Lettland. Die zweite Zeitebene zeigt uns Marga als an Alzheimer leidende alte Frau (gespielt von Hannelore Elsner), die gerne mit der Vergangenheit abschließen möchte, dies aber nicht kann. DAS BLAUE VOM HIMMEL ist gefühlsbetontes Kino mit sehr guter Kameraarbeit (Bella Halben) und exzellenter Filmmusik (Niki Reiser), das sich zum Ende hin leider etwas zieht.

Ein Film zum Thema, dass man in diesem Leben erst dann wirklich loslassen kann, wenn man mit seinem Gewissen im Reinen ist.

Atomares und Tierisches

Mein heutiges Filmmenü bestand aus einer strahlenden Dokumentation sowie einer romantischen Zirkusattraktion.

UNTER KONTROLLE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: farbfilm (24 Bilder)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Volker Sattel

Kinostart: 26.05.2011

Ihr Inneres wirkt wie eine Kulisse aus einem Science-Fiction-Film. Und wenn Mr. Spock plötzlich in der Kommandozentrale sitzen würde, würde sich vermutlich niemand darüber wundern. Die Rede ist von Kernkraftwerken. Mit seiner stets in Bewegung befindlichen CinemaScope-Kamera dokumentiert Regisseur Volker Sattel sozusagen den Ist-Zustand, der aktuell bei den Atommeilern herrscht. Ob es nun bereits stillgelegte Reaktoren sind, ob es sich nur um eine Ausbildungszentrale handelt, ob das Kraftwerk schon seit vielen Jahren abgebaut wird oder ob es noch nie in Betrieb gegangen war – Sattel besucht alle Stätten, die vom atomaren Zeitalter zeugen. Auch die Atomaufsichtsbehörde in Wien darf dabei nicht fehlen. Sein Film bleibt vollkommen unkommentiert. Nicht einmal Namen oder Dienstgrad der Personen, die ihm freimütig in die Kamera erzählen, erfährt man. Damit muss sich der Betrachter den Film und letztendlich seine eigene Meinung zur Materie selbst zusammenbauen. Sind diese hochriskanten Kraftwerke tatsächlich unter Kontrolle? Die oft beängstigenden Bilder vom Innenleben der Industriegiganten lassen da schon gewisse Zweifel aufkommen. Sattels Film kommt natürlich auch just zur rechten Zeit. Denn mit einer Katastrophe wie der von Fukushima im Nacken wird es wohl keinen Zuschauer geben, der diese Bestandsaufnahme als absolut sicher einstufen wird.

WASSER FÜR DIE ELEFANTEN

(1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Water For Elephants

Verleih: Fox

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Francis Lawrence

Darsteller: Reese Witherspoon, Robert Pattinson, Christoph Waltz

Kinostart: 28.04.2011

Nach dem plötzlichen Unfalltod seiner Eltern schmeißt der aus Polen stammende Jacob Jankowski sein Studium als Veterinär und schließt sich – dem Zufall sei Dank – einem Wanderzirkus an, der quer durch Amerika reist. Schnell findet er Gefallen an der hübschen Pferdedompteurin Marlena. Die aber ist mit dem Big Boss des Zirkus verheiratet, August Rosenbluth, einem Tyrannen mit psychopathischen Zügen. Als Rosenbluth eine Elefantendame für den Zirkus ankauft, ernennt er Jacob zum Elefantenbetreuer. Marlena soll mit seiner Unterstützung eine Elefantenummer erarbeiten. Jacob und Marlena kommen sich näher. Ein schwerwiegender Fehler, wie sich bald herausstellt... Auch wenn man das Buch nicht gelesen hat, so kann man doch Eins und Eins zusammenzählen. Und so läuft Francis Lawrences Film schon fast streng nach mathematischen Gesetzen ab. Zeit für Überraschungen wird hier nicht vergeudet. Das bricht dem Film natürlich das Rückgrat. Denn auch die größte Romanze aller Zeiten braucht etwas Würze! Der emotionale Funke vermag hier nur ganz selten auf das Publikum überzuspringen. Das freilich ist sehr schade bei einem sonst recht ordentlich fotografierten Film. Christoph Waltz mimt einmal mehr den Psychopathen, den er für Tarantino schon wesentlich überzeugender abgeliefert hat. Reese Witherspoon und Robert Pattinson als neues Traumpaar geht natürlich in Ordnung, bedient damit aber auch gleichzeitig wieder ein Klischee. Stellt man nicht allzu große Ansprüche an den Kinobesuch, so könnte WASSER FÜR DIE ELEFANTEN durchaus für ein prickelndes Kino-Date erhalten. Das Prickeln allerdings muss schon von der Begleiterin bzw. dem Begleiter ausgehen.

Großmutter – warum hast Du so große Augen?

Das große Finale einer sehr dürrtigen Kinowoche: ein No-Budget-Feature und ein Märchenthiller.

KOPFKINO (1:2.00, 5.1)

Verleih: Kambeck Filmproduktion

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Serdar Dogan

Darsteller: Ben Hansen, Cris Cosmo, Mary Muhsal

Kinostart: 12.05.2011

Tonio hat alles andere als ein gutes Selbstwertgefühl. Still und einsam sitzt der Buchverkäufer am liebsten in seinem Stammcafe und himmelt heimlich die hübsche Kellnerin Julia an. Das kann sein Kumpel "Schnitzel" nicht mehr länger mit ansehen und beschließt, Tonio bei der Eroberung von Julia zu helfen. Doch wie packt man das an? Klare Sache für Schnitzel: Tonio soll ihr einen Song schreiben! Dumm nur, dass Tonio weder singen noch schreiben kann. Doch mit Schnitzel als Coach lässt sich auch das hinkommen. Und so hat Tonio plötzlich nicht nur eine Band im Rücken, sondern ist auch noch zum anstehenden Musikwettbewerb angemeldet... Auch wenn der Debütfilm von Serdar Dogan an einigen Stellen seinen Amateurstatus nicht kaschieren kann, so liefert er damit doch ein sehr beachtliches und ambitioniertes Werk ab. Dass Dogan offensichtlich ein Filmliebhaber ist, lässt sich unschwer an den Tagträumen seines Helden Tonio ablesen. Denn wann immer auch der seinen Gedanken freien Lauf lässt, sieht sich der Zuschauer unmittelbar mit liebevoll gestalteten Filmzitate konfrontiert. Da wird Tonio dann zum edlen Ritter oder nimmt sich seine Julia, wie es nur ein Clark Gable als Rhett Butler kann. Derlei nette Einfälle lassen gerne über andere Unzulänglichkeiten hinwegsehen – zumal es sich bei KOPFKINO um eine Produktion mit Minimalbudget handelt. Ben Hansen als Tonio und Cris Cosmo als Schnitzel hatten beim Dreh ganz offensichtlich viel Spaß. Ihre unverbrauchten Gesichter bringen frischen Wind auf die große Kinoleinwand. Ben Hansen betätigte sich dabei nicht nur als Schauspieler, sondern lieferte auch den Score zum Film. Der ist wirklich gut gelungen, untermalt jedoch zu viele Szenen. Weniger wäre hier mehr gewesen. Fazit: bei einem solchen Debütfilm darf man sich schon auf Folgeprojekte freuen!

RED RIDING HOOD – UNTER DEM WOLFSMOND (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Red Riding Hood

Verleih: Warner

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Catherine Hardwicke

Darsteller: Amanda Seyfried, Shiloh

Fernandez, Max Irons, Virginia

Madsen, Gary Oldman

Kinostart: 21.04.2011

Irgendwann in einer alten Zeit, irgendwo in einem kleinen Dorf. Schon seit vielen Jahren werden die verängstigten Bewohner bei Vollmond von einem grausamen Wolf heimgesucht. Als die junge Valerie bei einer erneuten Attacke der Bestie ihre ältere Schwester verliert, beschließt die Gemeinschaft den Wolf zu jagen. Gesagt – getan. Mit einer Wolfstrophäe heimkehrend wiegen sich die Dörfler in Sicherheit. Doch da taucht Pater Soloman mit seiner Garde auf – ein echter Inquisitor. Und er behauptet, dass die Jäger den falschen Wolf erlegt haben. Denn beim echten Wolf handele es sich um einen Werwolf – und der lebt schon immer getarnt als einer der Dorfbewohner... Catherine Hardwicke interpretiert das berühmte Grimm'sche Märchen vom Rotkäppchen auf ihre Art und Weise. Versatzstücke der Gebrüder Grimm kombiniert mit Elementen aus Fantasy-Filmen ergeben daraus eine Geschichte mit sexuellen Grundtönen, die von Entjungferung über Inzest bis hin zu Kindesmissbrauch reichen. Das alles wird freilich bei diesem ab 12 Jahren freigegebenen Werk extrem weichgespült und bedarf schon eines wachsamen Auges, um diese Schwingungen wahrzunehmen. Oberflächlich ist der Film leider nur Standardware und obendrein mit noch recht hölzern wirkenden visuellen Effekten. Immerhin gefällt die Optik des Films recht gut, gelingt es ihr doch den märchenhaften Charakter des Stoffes mit adäquaten Stimmungsbildern einzufangen. Wenn dann allerdings die attraktive Amanda Seyfried in ihrer Rolle als Valerie den von allen Zuschauern sehnsüchtig erwarteten Satz "Großmutter – warum hast Du so große Augen?" rezitiert, dann reizt das eher das Zwerchfell und nicht die Gänsehaut.

Ziegen, die auf Männer starren

Der Terminkalender verspricht einen prall gefüllten Kinoplan für diese Woche. Den Auftakt machte ein extrem ruhiger Film – eine richtige Wohltat.

VIER LEBEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Le Quattro Volte

Verleih: NFP

Land/Jahr: Italien, Deutschland, Schweiz 2010

Regie: Michelangelo Frammartino

Darsteller: Giuseppe Fuda, Bruno

Timpano, Nazareno Timpano

Kinostart: 30.06.2011

Nicht den Menschen wollte er in seinem Film in den Mittelpunkt stellen, sondern ihn in seiner Wechselwirkung mit allen anderen Objekten darstellen: Tiere, Pflanzen, Mineralien. Denn sie seien mit der gleichen Würde gesegnet wie der Mensch. So Regisseur Michelangelo Frammartino über seinen Film. Und Frammartino hält Wort. So beginnt sein in der süditalienischen Bergregion Kalabrien angesiedelter Film mit einem alten und kranken Ziegenhirten. Seine Medizin ist der Staub vom Kirchboden in jenem Dorf, in dem er lebt. Als er eines Nachts stirbt, halten seine Ziegen die Sterbewache. Schon bald wird ein Zicklein geboren. Von nun an folgt die Kamera seinen Pfaden. Und zwar so lange, bis es eines Tages von der Herde getrennt wird und Unterschlupf unter einen riesigen Tanne sucht. Diese wird später von den Dorfbewohnern gefällt und landet letztendlich bei den Köhlern, die sie nach alter Tradition in Holzkohle verwandeln. Wenn am Schluss des Films schließlich Rauch aus dem Kamin eines Hauses im Dorf aufsteigt, schließt sich der Kreislauf. Frammartino hat einen poetischen Film über den ewigen Kreislauf des Lebens inszeniert. Und er tut dies mit unorthodoxen Methoden. Denn sein Film wirkt alles andere als inszeniert. Alles, so scheint es, hat seinen ganz natürlichen Ablauf. Der Verzicht auf Dialoge und Filmmusik macht seinen Film weitgehend dokumentarisch. Dem Betrachter wird der Mut zur Langsamkeit abgefordert. Die vielen statischen Einstellungen, die oft auch noch Totale sind, bewirken das genaue Gegenteil von jenen actiongeladenen Filmen, die stets den Menschen ins Zentrum rücken. Wenn man sich auf die poetische Erzählweise Frammartinos einlassen kann, ist der Kinoabend geglückt.

Wolfram Hannemanns

Hanna rennt

Zweimal Action: eine, die man gleich wieder vergisst und eine, die im Gedächtnis haften bleibt. Mir war die Letztere wesentlich lieber.

FAST & FURIOUS FIVE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Fast Five

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Justin Lin

Darsteller: Vin Diesel, Paul Walker,

Dwayne Johnson

Kinostart: 28.04.2011

Noch auf dem Weg ins Gefängnis wird Dominic Toretto durch seine Schwester und seinen Schwager in spe mittels einer spektakulären Aktion befreit. Gemeinsam taucht das Trio in Rio de Janeiro unter. Dort bietet sich dem Gespann eine einmalige Gelegenheit, mit einem vollkommen neuen Leben anzufangen: denn die 100 Millionen Dollar eines Drogenbarons warten nur darauf, geraubt zu werden. Schnell wird ein unschlagbares Team zusammengestellt und ein ausgeklügelter Plan entworfen. Doch Special Agent Hobbs ist den guten Bösen bereits auf der Spur... Der fünfte und mit 130 Minuten Spielzeit der vermutlich längste Teil der FAST & FURIOUS Saga hat nur eines im Sinn: in den Multiplex-Kinos am Startwochenende möglichst viel Cash abkassieren! Logisch, dass sich die Drehbuchautoren daher auf das Wesentliche konzentrieren. Und das ist in diesem Falle beinharte Action. Die ist – wie könnte es heute auch anders sein – mittels der perfekten Kombination aus Stunts und visuellen Effekten – auch hervorragend gelungen und wird dem Zweck der Profitmaximierung sicherlich gerecht werden. Detaillierte Charakterzeichnungen oder physikalische Gesetze bleiben dabei natürlich auf der Strecke. Wer sich also vorsorglich mit einem Survival-Kit bestehend aus Popcorn und Softdrink im XXL-Format versorgt, dem dürften die furiosen Fünf großen Spaß bescheren. Wer allerdings weder Popcorn noch Softdrinks im Kinossessel mag, der sollte diesen Film großräumig umgehen. Mein persönliches Statement nach Sichtung dieses Adrenalinbeschleunigers: "I am too old for this S!"

WER IST HANNA? (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Hanna

Verleih: Sony Pictures

Land/Jahr: USA, Deutschland, Großbritannien 2011

Regie: Joe Wright

Darsteller: Saoirse Ronan, Eric Bana,

Vicky Krieps, Cate Blanchett

Kinostart: 26.05.2011

Fast ihr ganzes Leben lang lebte Hanna zusammen mit ihrem Vater irgendwo in der Wildnis. Vom Rest der Welt hat sie keine Ahnung. Und sie ist durch eine harte Schule gegangen. Denn ihr Vater hat dafür gesorgt, dass sie von klein an darauf gedrillt wurde, wie ein Soldat zu handeln. Doch jetzt wird die 16jährige flüchte und will ihr Nest verlassen.

Denn es gibt noch eine geheimnisvolle Rechnung zu begleichen. Die kommt in Gestalt der toughen Marissa, einer CIA-Agentin. Einst war sie die Kollegin von Hannas Vater, ebenfalls ein Geheimagent. Ihr Ziel: Hannas Vater zu töten und Hanna zu finden. Die Jagd beginnt. Ihr ausdrucksstarken Augen haben sich spätestens seit Peter Jacksons IN MEINEM HIMMEL eingebrennt: Saoirse Ronan begeistert als das eiskalte Girl Hanna, von dem sich männliche Action-Ikone gerne ein Stück abschneiden dürfen! Wenn Hanna auf der Flucht vor ihren Häschern durch Berlin rennt und aus den Kinolautsprechern Technomusik ertönt, dann hat das genau jene Power, mit der

Tom Tykwer seine Lola seinerzeit durch dieselbe Stadt rennen ließ. WER IST HANNA entpuppt sich als überraschend gutes Action-Kino mit nicht vorhersehbarem Plot und dessen gepflegte Optik einfach begeistert. Auch wenn der Film nach der ersten Hälfte etwas abflaut, so hinterlässt er dennoch einen bleibenden positiven Eindruck. Schade, dass der Film schon vorbei ist.

Zwei Mal zwei Brüder

Film Nummer 1 zeigte zwei Brüder, die niemals gegeneinander kämpfen werden, und Film Nummer 2 zeigte Brüder, die bis aufs Messer gegeneinander kämpfen. Es geht doch nichts über die Familie!

KLITSCHKO (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Majestic (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Sebastian Dehnhardt

Kinostart: 16.06.2011

Dokumentarfilm oder einfach nur ein Prestige-Film? Nach Sichtung von Sebastian Dehnhardts Film über die Gebrüder Klitschko drängt einem sich diese Frage unweigerlich auf. Der Film beleuchtet fast ausschließlich die sportliche Karriere der beiden amtierenden Box-Weltmeister, schweigt sich aber über große Teile des Privatlebens der gebürtigen Ukrainer aus. Immerhin wird erwähnt, dass sich der ältere der beiden Brüdern, Vatali, in seiner Heimat Kiev politisch engagiert. Dass die beiden jedoch jeweils einen Doktor-Titel innehaben erfährt man lediglich aus dem Presseheft. Die eingangs gestellte Frage lässt hier keine Wahl: Dehnhardts Film ist ein Imagefilm für die Klitschkos und soll deren Saubermannstatus richtig aufpolieren soll. Das gelingt dem Film hervorragend, denn schon bald verfällt der unbedarfte Zuschauer dem inszenierten Pathos. Hier bleibt alles sehr an der Oberfläche, was nichts mit Boxkampf zu tun hat. Was allerdings ziemlich stört sind fehlende Namenseinblendungen, die dem Zuschauer mitteilen, wer da jetzt in die Kamera spricht. Vielleicht lag's kja auch einfach daran, dass uns einmal mehr eine Blu-ray des Films vorgesetzt wurde und wir möglicherweise gar nicht das Endprodukt zu Gesicht bekommen haben.

Wolfram Hannemanns

THOR (1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1)

OT: Thor

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Kenneth Branagh

Darsteller: Chris Hemsworth, Natalie Portman, Sir Anthony Hopkins

Kinostart: 28.04.2011

Weil Odins Sohn Thor ein echter Hitzkopf ist und sich damit in den Augen seines übermächtigen Vaters nicht als Thronfolger eignet, verbannt er ihn auf die Erde. Dort soll Thor so lange keine Macht mehr über seinen magischen Hammer haben, bis er gelernt hat, wie ein echter König zu handeln. Kaum auf der Erde angekommen, gibt es auch gleich schon Ärger. Denn während seiner Abwesenheit hat sich sein Bruder mit den Erzfeinden seines Vaters verbündet... Dass sich die neueste Verfilmung einer Comicvorlage aus dem Hause Marvel von anderen neuzeitlichen Fantasy- und SciFi-Spektakeln in keiner Art und Weise unterscheidet, dürfte schlicht und ergreifend daran liegen, dass Regisseur Kenneth Branagh seinem Film keine eigene Handschrift aufdrückt. Für ein solches Werk hätte es keines Kenneth Branagh bedurft! Überbordende Spezialeffekte, brachiales Sounddesign und komplett unterforderte Schauspieler machen noch lange keinen Film aus. Da benötigt man schon ein paar spritzige Ideen und ein intelligentes Drehbuch. Fehlanzeige. Sogar das 3D-Erlebnis ist hier Fehlanzeige und führt nur zu einem dunkleren Bild bei der Vorführung. Von richtigem Kino habe ich zumindest ganz andere Vorstellungen. THOR passt am ehesten noch ins TV-Nachtprogramm – man kann einfach sehr gut dabei schlafen! Aber Obacht: es gibt eine Belohnung für brave Abspann-Gucker.

Doppeltes Blutbad

Gerade richtig zu Ostern – zwei Horrorfilme. Der Eine augenzwinkernd, der Andere sozialkritisch.

SCREAM 4 (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Scream 4

Verleih: Wild Bunch

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Wes Craven

Darsteller: Neve Campbell, Courteney Cox, David Arquette

Kinostart: 05.05.2011

Die Hauptdarstellerin bringt es mit ihrem Satz auf den Punkt: "Wenn Du ein Sequel machst, dann muss es das Original übertreffen!" Und genau das ist es, was Regisseur Wes Craven und Drehbuchautor Kevin Williamson 15 Jahre nach ihrem bahnbrechenden Slasher SCREAM mit dem neuesten Update ihres erfolgreichen Franchise tun: sie toppen das Original! 15 Jahre sind vergangen, seit der grausame Killer "Ghostface" das Örtchen Woodboro in Angst und Schrecken versetzt hat. Jetzt kehrt die damals überlebende Sidney wieder in die alte Heimat zurück – mit ihrem Bestseller "Out of the Darkness", in dem sie ihre traumatischen Erlebnisse von damals verarbeitet. Es dauert aber nicht lange bis die Mordserie von Neuem beginnt. Sheriff Dewey bekommt alle Hände voll zu tun, von einem Tatort zum nächsten zu jagen. Und eines ist ganz sicher: der Killer hat es auf Sidney abgesehen... Mit der genialen Eröffnungssequenz legt Wes Craven die Marschroute für seine Film von Anfang an fest. Da sitzen zwei flotte Mädels gemeinsam auf der Couch und schauen sich eines der vielen Sequels eines Slasherfilms mit dem Titel "Stab" an. Da kommt der unvermeidliche Anruf, der vor 15 Jahren bereits Drew Barrymore das Leben gekostet hat. Die Teens sehen sich alsbald dem grausamen Ghostface konfrontiert und rennen um ihr Leben. Schnitt. Wieder sitzen zwei hübsche Girls auf der Couch und schauen sich ein Sequel von "Stab" an. Dem Zuschauer wird jetzt klar: die erste Sequenz war "nur" ein Film. Wer jetzt allerdings glaubt, dass das schon alles war, dem stehen noch ein paar Überraschungen ins Haus. Den das Gespann Craven/Williamson lassen ihre Zuschauer nicht zur Ruhe kommen. Während sie ihre Opfer um ihr Leben fürchten lässt, finden sie noch genügend Zeit dafür, ihre Protagonisten über Filmklischees, Torture Porns oder gar Bruce Willis reflektieren zu lassen. Alles überaus spannend, sehr blutig (die Freigabe ab 16 Jahren dürfte ein verspäteter Aprilscherz sein!) und stets mit einem Augenzwinkern inszeniert. Da fällt dann auch der Satz "Rule No. 1 for Remakes: Never Fuck with the Original!" Diesen herrlichen Satz könnte man sinngemäß so weiterführen: "But fucking can be so much fun!" Wes Craven würde das ganz bestimmt gefallen. SCREAM 4 – ein wahres Fest für Fans, das man sich nicht entgehen lassen sollte.

WIR SIND WAS WIR SIND (1:2.35, DD 5.1)
 OT: Somos Lo Que Hay
 Verleih: Alamode (Filmagentinnen)
 Land/Jahr: Mexiko 2010
 Regie: Jorge Michel Grau
 Darsteller: Francisco Barreiro, Alan Chávez, Paulina Gaitan
 Kinostart: 02.06.2011

Kannibalen haben es nicht einfach. Als der Vater plötzlich stirbt, stehen seine Frau und die drei Kinder vollkommen alleine da. Ein neues Familienoberhaupt muss her, das für die Nahrungsbeschaffung zuständig ist. Der jüngere Bruder kommt nicht in Frage. Er ist zu hitzköpfig und zu aggressiv. Die Wahl fällt auf den einfühlsamen Älteren, der mit seiner Homosexualität zu kämpfen hat. Bei den Außenseitern der Gesellschaft finden sich die potentiellen Opfer: Straßenkinder, Huren, Homosexuelle. Doch zwei korrupte Polizeibeamte kommen den Menschenfressern auf die Spur... Jorge Michel Graus düsterer Horrorfilm ist trotz seiner recht krassen Szenen, die absolut nichts für zart Besaitete sind, durchaus Arthaus-tauglich. Sinnbildlich für alle Randgruppen zeigt er am Beispiel der Kannibalen, wie nicht einmal deren extremste Überlebensstrategien ausreichen, um in dieser Welt zu überleben. Wie Außenseiter durch die Gesellschaft behandelt werden, zeigt bereits die Eröffnungssequenz ganz deutlich. Auf der Suche nach Nahrung schleppt sich der alte Vater mit letzter Kraft durch eine noble Einkaufsstraße, erbricht sich, bricht zusammen und bleibt liegen. Zwei Sanitäter schleppen ihn weg. Sofort kommt sie Putzkolonne und wischt den Dreck weg. Und schon schlendern wieder Normalos über den Marmorboden.

Ein Klassiker und eine Remake

Die beiden einzigen Pressevorführungen, die ich in dieser Woche besuchen werde, gab es heute. Was zum Kuckuck mache ich mit dem Rest

METROPOLIS (1:1.33, DD 5.1)
 Verleih: Warner
 Land/Jahr: Deutschland 1927-2010
 Regie: Fritz Lang
 Darsteller: Brigitte Helm, Alfred Abel, Gustav Fröhlich
 Kinostart: 12.05.2011

Damit es sich die Oberschicht so richtig gut gehen lassen kann, muss die Unterschicht extrem hart arbeiten. In Fritz Langs epochemachendem Sci-Fi-Spektakel wird dieser Zustand in einfachen Bildern symbolisiert. Die Arbeiterschicht haust tief unter der Erde von Metropolis, jener gigantischen Stadt, deren Schöpfer Joh Fredersen wie ein Gott von ganz oben die Geschicke der Stadt regiert. Als sein Sohn Freder sich in das Arbeitermädchen Maria verliebt und die ausbeuterische Situation der Arbeiterschicht kennenlernt, beginnt das Imperium zu wanken. Ob STAR WARS oder BLADE RUNNER – es gibt wohl kaum einen zeitgenössischen Sci-Fi-Film, der nicht von METROPOLIS beeinflusst wurde. Der nach seiner Uraufführung erheblich verstümmelte Film wird jetzt erstmals in einer nahezu kompletten Version gezeigt. Zu verdanken ist dies einer zufällig aufgefundenen 16mm-Kopie des Films, die in einem Filmarchiv in Südamerika schlummerte. Viele Szenen dieser 16mm-Fassung wurden in die bis dahin vollständigste Version integriert. Leider sind die extrem vielen Schrammen des entdeckten Filmmaterials in der jetzt vorliegenden Fassung zu sehen, doch sie tun dem Erlebnis keinerlei Abbruch. Neu eingespielt und auf Dolby Digital 5.1 abgemischt wurde die Originalmusik von Gottfried Huppertz, die für die Premiere des Films im Jahre 1927 komponiert wurde. Auch wenn zu Stummfilmzeiten wesentlich mehr mit Gestik und Gesichtsausdruck gearbeitet wurde als heutzutage, so wirkt METROPOLIS auch noch heute nachhaltig und sollte von jedem Filmfan gesehen werden.

ARTHUR (1:1.85, DD 5.1)
 OT: Arthur
 Verleih: Warner
 Land/Jahr: USA 2011
 Regie: Jason Winer
 Darsteller: Russell Brand, Helen Mirren, Greta Gerwig, Jennifer Garner, Nick Nolte
 Kinostart: 05.05.2011

Arthur ist ein extrem verwöhnter junger Mann. Durch seine abnormal reiche Mutter kann er sich ein Leben in Saus und Braus leisten, muss nicht arbeiten und hat jede Menge Freundinnen. Und er hat eine Nanny – Miss Hobson. Sie kümmert sich stets darum, dass das Chaos, das Arthur in seinem Übermut und mit etwas zuviel Alkohol im Blut hinterlassen hat, auch wieder weggeräumt wird. Damit er sein zügelloses Leben weiter genießen kann, willigt er ein, die von seiner Mutter aus geschäftlichen Gründen auserkorene Susan zu ehelichen. Doch das stellt sich als ein großes Problem heraus, das Arthur plötzlich die reizende Naomi kennenlernt... Im Remake einer Komödie aus dem Jahre 1981 (damals mit Dudley Moore in der Titelrolle) nervt vor allem eines ganz gehörig: Hauptdarsteller Russell Brand, der leider alles andere als komisch ist. Immerhin stehen ihm zum Ausgleich zwei extrem gute Darstellerinnen zur Seite. Helen Mirren spielt Kindermädchen Hobson in bester britischer Manier. Und die hübsche Greta Gerwig als Naomi ist wirklich unwiderstehlich – sie spielt ihre Rolle absolut überzeugend. Alles andere ist kalter Kaffee in diesem achtziger Jahre Aufguss, den die Welt nicht braucht. Zudem ist das Remake glatte 20 Minuten länger als das Original. Und das ist sehr nachteilig.

The Baby

Ruth Roman, Michael Pataki, Anjanette Comer, Marianna Hill, Tod Andrews

An A-list director. A jaw-dropping storyline. And depraved depictions of suburban violence, 70s fashions and 'sick love'. The result remains one of the most disturbing movies in Hollywood history: Anjanette Comer (The Loved One) stars as an idealistic L.A. County social worker who investigates the case of Mrs. Wadsworth (former '50s starlet Ruth Roman of Strangers On A Train fame), her two buxom daughters, and son 'Baby', a mentally-disabled man who sleeps in a crib, eats in a high-chair, crawls, bawls and wears diapers. But what secrets of unnatural attachment - and sexual obsession - are all of these women hiding? Marianna Hill (The Godfather Part II) and Michael Pataki (Grave of the Vampire) co-star in this psychotic stunner from director Ted Post (Magnum Force, Beneath the Planet of the Apes), now fully restored from the original film negative for the first time ever.

Das Boot: The Director's Cut (Blu-ray)

Jurgen Prochnow, Herbert Gronemeyer, Klaus Wennemann

In the midst of World War II, as the tide turns against the Axis, a German U-boat crew is sent out to patrol the Atlantic and fire at Allied ships bringing supplies to England. The submarine also carries a press correspondent, there to report from the front lines of nautical warfare. Meanwhile, the crew's captain (Jurgen Prochnow) is becoming disillusioned with the Nazi regime and with war in general. What starts out as a routine mission is soon livened up beyond the crew's expectations when their boat's surprise attack on a convoy is thwarted by a fast-moving destroyer. Battered by depth charges, the crew must pull together to survive the attacks of their unseen enemy. Widely considered to be director Wolfgang Petersen's best film and one of the finest German films ever made, Das Boot is stunningly realistic in its portrayal of the cramped conditions aboard a German submarine. Based on a novel by Lothar G. Buchheim, it is a striking example of an intelligent antiwar film clothed in the guise of a military thriller.

Iran's fearless feminist director Tahmineh Milani was jailed in 2001 as an anti-revolutionary because of her film The Hidden Half. While there, Milani befriended a woman with a strong sense of identity and independence. This woman inspired the main character in Payback. Milani once again pushes the envelope with this double-edged comedy-drama about a recently paroled woman who talks three other ex-cons into a get-rich-quick scheme. The scheme involves fleecing gullible men who are on the make even though they are married. Despite the storyline's darker implications, Milani (Cease Fire, Super Star) manages to infuse the film with some comic high jinks, particularly when the four young women turn the tables on their would-be male predators.

Phil Ochs: There But For Fortune

As our country continues to embroil itself in foreign wars, Phil Ochs: There But For Fortune is a timely and relevant tribute to an unlikely American hero. Over the course of a meteoric music career that spanned two turbulent decades, Phil Ochs sought the bright lights of fame and social justice in equal measure, a contradiction that eventually tore him apart. From youthful idealism to rage to pessimism, the arch of Ochs' life paralleled that of the times, and the anger, satire and righteous indignation that drove his music also drove him to dark despair. In this brilliantly constructed film, interview and performance footage of Ochs is illuminated by the ruminations of Joan Baez, Tom Hayden, Pete Seeger, Sean Penn, Peter Yarrow, Christopher Hitchens and others.

The Wagner Family

This is a film about a family, a family which has ruled the theatre in Bayreuth in southern Germany for the last 140 years; some say still the greatest theatre in the world. There's no doubt that Richard Wagner, who built it, was the most influential composer in the whole of the 19th Century. But his family has survived a mixture of lies, deception, fraud and dangerous political alliances. The story of this family is a soap opera that makes Coronation Street look like Noddy-in-Toyland. It's a family, in many ways the Royal family of Germany, at war with itself.

Yes: Rock Of The 70s

The year 2008 was the year in which YES celebrated its fortieth anniversary. The band still led by founder Chris Squire toured America with the latest line up to bear the name of this rather special band of musicians. This year was also important for another reason. Whilst looking for footage for an entirely different project, Voiceprint's researchers were able to secure rarely seen film footage that had only been previously seen either on television or in extract on video. Although the history of YES is well documented elsewhere, it is worth reminding ourselves of the history and background to the production that we can now view it for the first time on DVD. The performances featured on this DVD demonstrate the beginnings of the journey and the creativity of a band that has been so influential in the development of a genre that has defied time and generations so as to become the soundtrack and vision in so many lives.

You Think You Really Know Me: The Gary Wilson Story

He made a masterpiece, and then he disappeared. Championed by the likes of Beck and Matt Groening and obsessed over by record collectors, Gary Wilson's 1977 album, You Think You Really Know Me, is widely considered one of the most unique and personal musical statements of the 1970's. Inspired by the 2002 reissue of the seminal album, director Michael Wolk set out to learn more about the man behind this esoteric record only to find that its creator had all but vanished shortly after its release, making for a story just as interesting and peculiar as the album for which he's known. You Think You Really Know Me: The Gary Wilson Story is a look at the fascinating yet bittersweet life of a musician and artist well ahead of his time and ripe for rediscovery. 2-disc DVD/CD set includes the original 1977 album.

About Jenny Holzer

An artist whose medium is language. For more than 30 years, Jenny Holzer's name has stood for a conceptual art that questions our perceptions and the way we are influenced by media and politics. Holzer has made LED signs - typically identified with advertising - her trademark. These blinking, flickering text displays, designed to captivate and sway passersby, have been repurposed by Holzer since the early 1980s. Through her art, she shows us again and again how thoroughly seduced and manipulated we are by the visual and textual stimuli that surround us every day. Claudia Müller's film follows the artist over the course of 10 years at work and through numerous exhibitions, making Holzer's art tangible as it traces her career, from the young artist putting up posters in New York in the late 1970s to one of the most influential female artists of today. Jenny Holzer's work demonstrates that while art may not be able to change the world, it can heighten our awareness of what surrounds us every day. EXTRAS INCLUDE TWO SHORT FILMS:

Footsteps: A Journey In Faith

Twelve religious leaders of very different traditions come together for a life-changing trip to the Middle East; to a land they've read about, a land they've preached about for years, and a land some of them will see for the very first time. Trapped by their convictions, hoping things won't get worse before they get better, 12 not-so-angry men and women, persons of the cloth whose Twin Cities followers number into faithful thousands from rainbow pulpits and traditional, wanting conflict resolution (maybe not right away), they embark in this film on the age-old trek to Jerusalem early last year for a close ear to the ground on Middle East problems. The trip is not political but an act of ecumenism from major Twin Cities Muslim, Jewish, Christian and Unitarian religious leaders in an experiment exploring new possibilities for peace.

Hey, Boo: Harper Lee & To Kill A Mockingbird

Fifty years after winning the Pulitzer Prize, To Kill a Mockingbird remains a beloved bestseller and quite possibly the most influential American novel of the 20th Century. One million copies are sold each year in 40 languages; the Library of Congress has said that it's second only to the Bible as books most often cited as making a difference. The film version, starring Gregory Peck as Atticus Finch, won a trio of Academy Awards, and the U.S. Postal Service's new stamp honoring Peck depicts him wearing glasses, as Finch. Behind it all was a young Southern girl named Nelle Harper Lee, who once joked that she wanted to be South Alabama's Jane Austen. HEY, BOO explores Lee's life and unravels some of the mysteries surrounding her, including why she never published again. It also brings to light the context and history of the novel's Deep South setting and the social changes it inspired after publication. Oprah Winfrey, Tom Brokaw, Anna Quindlen, Rosanne Cash, Wally Lamb, Richard Russo, Scott Turow, Andrew Young and others reflect on the novel's power, influence, and popularity, and the many ways it has s

Seducing Time: Selected Prize Winning Videotapes By Lynn Hershman Leeson 1984-2008

For over four decades, through performance, photography, installations, artificial intelligence agents, web presences and cinema, Lynn Hershman's work has explored what it is to live in a world of mediated, monitored, and manipulated identities. Corporeal and virtual presences become simulated entities that in turn reveal personal identity and its impact on cultural construction. Often Hershman's narratives retrieve formerly lost histories that are excavated through technological manipulation. The process brings to the surface the moral consequences of an unpredictable system of covert meanings. All of her work explores encryption of privacy in an era of surveillance as well as personal and societal identity in a time of pervasive yet covert manipulation. Many of the narratives focus on the revitalization and restoration of personal empowerment. The selected works in this collection focus on broad issues of identity and culture, particularly the technological projections that impact individuals and society.
