The 1972- 73 Nurnberg Eagles Basketball Team

Conference Record: 1 win-13 Loses

Returning Lettermen From '71-'72: Dieter Bednarski, Sam Buster, Bob Crosby
Joe Houston

Blue Division Tournament: Eighth Place

Lack of experience was the main concern as the 1971-'72 season began. There was one senior among the 4 returning lettermen, and only two had extensive court experience. Of the eight first year players, only two had junior varsity game time.

In the first weekend of play, Frankfurt had a distinct height advantage, but Joe Houston was fearless in his quest for 16 points on Friday night, Bob Crosby went to the hoop for 18 the next day.

Sam Buster lead the Eagles to their only victory of the year with 17 points en route to a 62-57 come from behind win in Stuttgart. The Stallions won a see saw battle the next day by eight.

Strong Heidelberg and Kaiserslautern teams dominated the next two weekends, handing Nurnberg four consecutive road losses. Isaac Sapp hit 17 on Friday against K-Town while playing with his mouth wired shut as a result of a broken jaw.

Bob Crosby, Sam Buster, Joe Houston, and Dieter Bednarski all scored in double figures at home against Mannheim as the visitors took both close games. The Bison's Dave Tuszynski scored with 4 seconds left in their 54-52 victory on Saturday.

After a long trip to Bitburg, the Eagles lost the first night by 6 despite double figure performances from Bednarski, Buster, Houston, and Calvin Palmer. Bednarski led the team with 13 on Saturday.

Buster led the team in scoring totaling 11.6 points per game, Bednarski was a close second at 10.8 ppg. Houston and Palmer were the leading rebounders.

Despite their won loss record, all twelve players consistently showed courage and character in the face of adversity as displayed in Sapp's performance in K-Town. The team continued their improvement with each game, and went to the Blue Division Tournament looking for more game experience and an eye toward next year. The ground work was being laid in terms of dedication and persistence for the successful teams which followed.

Premier in Nürnberg, October 29, 1972

Ein weiteres Broadway-Musical zeigt Nürnberg als erste Eigenproduktion eines deutschen Theaters: „Anatevka“ von Stein, Bock und Harnick. Premiere in Nürnberg am 21. 4. 1973

2 LEONARD BERNSTEIN WEST SIDE STORY

Deutsche Erstaufführung
 Musikalische Leitung: Charles Axton
 Inszenierung: Wolfgang Weber / Larry Fuller
 Bühne: Peter Heyduck
 Kostüme: Margret Kaulbach
 Choreographie: Larry Fuller
 Premiere in Nürnberg am 29. 10. 1972

1943 sprang Bernstein für den erkrankten Bruno Walter ein. Am nächsten Tag schrieb die „New York Times“: „Leonard Bernstein am Pull... Debüt eines Genies.“

Giuseppe Verdi
 Falstaff
 „Nachdem wir Schrei und Klagen im menschlichen Herzen geweckt haben (Othello), werden wir nun mit berstendem Gelächter schließen, das wird alle umwerfen“, sagte der 80jährige Verdi über seine Oper Falstaff.

A graduate of Nürnberg sings with the opera company. In "West Side Story" she plays the part of Consuela.

Gina Curzi
 Consuela

Below, commentary on the musical.

1957: Boogie Woogie, guess how many of today's now grown teenagers are complaining about the youth of today. 1957 was "West Side Story." All of a sudden, behind the glittering facades of Broadway in the theater, there was a suburb with bare walls and fire stairs, like the ones you just avoided. Nevertheless, West Side Story is Broadway, it's entertainment. And the conflicts have come to a head: In the story, the Jets made fun of the police inspector Krupke. Now the fruits have taken root: "Black Panthesr" on one side and "Schweine" that is, pigs on the other. — translation of the German by Google and Bob McQuitty, Archivist
