PREFACE

The present publication forms part of a more extensive unpublished piece of work undertaken a number of years ago, and will now serve as a supplement to F. K. Walter's "Abbreviations and Technical Terms used in Book Catalogues and Bibliographies," published in Boston in 1912.

The original manuscript was planned somewhat differently, and included library terms, now published separately. Changes in the arrangement were made necessary in order to make it uniform with the work it now supplements. Terms already in Mr. Walter's work, are, with a few exceptions, omitted here.

In the compilation numerous works on bibliography, printing, and binding have been consulted, as well as periodicals relating to these subjects.

Several foreign librarians have given me their kind assistance in cases where I was unable to find the terms. Thus a number of Dutch terms were supplied by Dr. H. Greve and Mr. R. van der Meulen, Italian by Dr. Eugenio Rossi, Spanish by Mrs. Figarola Caneda, and Swedish by Dr. Isak Collijn.

Mr. F. K. Walter, who is the compiler of the Latin list, a field left untouched by me, has given valuable assistance in the final preparation of the work by contributions, especially of French and German abbreviations and terms. To him and to the above mentioned librarians I hereby express my sincere thanks. Their contributions have added to what there is of value in the work. For its shortcomings I am solely responsible.

LATIN

By FRANK KELLER WALTER

This list supplements the brief one in Abbreviations and Technical Terms Used in Book Catalogs and in Bibliographies (Boston Book Co., 1912). Like its predecessor, it is confined to abbreviations and terms used in the descriptions of books and again like its predecessor, it includes such expressions as actually are used, irrespective of their consistency or philological propriety. The number of Latin terms which the beginner will find in the ordinary trade and national bibliographies and in current catalogs of modern books is relatively small. The cataloger, order clerk, or reference assistant whose work lies even occasionally with books, prints or manuscripts of the 18th century or earlier, will find a different state of affairs. Since Latin was the universal language of the educated man, the earlier general bibliographies and catalogs of libraries were usually written in Latin and a profusion of Latin terms was used in the catalogs of booksellers. Even as late as 1838, Hain felt it advisable to use Latin throughout in his Reperitorium Bibliographicum. Unfortunately, there was little or no agreement as to exact connotation of terms or as to form of abbreviation, and in many cases the context offers little or no help. The same is true even today of many continental booksellers, some of whom take their entries directly or at second-hand from bibliographers like Hain or Bauer, while some strike out boldly into systems of abbreviations of their own. Both in the old and in modern bibliographies the meanings as well as the spellings are post-classical and, in many cases, not to be found in any of the standard Latin dictionaries. The desire to avoid monotony by the use of synonyms of doubtful accuracy and expressions of only slightly different meanings adds to the confusion.

There is no attempt at completeness in this rough list and many terms have been included which may seem unnecessary to the connoisseur while others have been excluded which may now and then confront one in unexpected places. This has been unavoidable since there could be no completeness short of a formal technical dictionary and the selection has been made to depend on actual difficulties likely to be met. Hain, as the source of many later works and of thousands of fugitive entries and references, has received rather more attention than many of the others and it is hoped that a fairly full list of terms frequently used by that indefatigable, though sometimes inconsistent, bibliographer has been included. Many terms and abbreviations in books used in the former list like Cim, Kleemeier, Power, Rouveyre, though previously excluded as of little use in a beginner's list have been inserted here.

Three cautions are necessary in the use of any list like this (1) There is no consistent principle followed in many bibliographies and though p. may be the usual abbreviation for pagina, one is quite as likely to find pag. used in the same work. (2) The plural is usually formed by doubling the final letter of the abbreviation, e.g.,

lit. litera. Letter; litt. literæ, Letters.

(3) The same abbreviation is often used indiscriminately for both singular and plural, e.g., s. for both signaturā and signaturæ as in Hain.

It is impracticable to list here all the books consulted. Among those from which considerable material was obtained are: Beck, C., Jahrbuch der Bücherpreise, v. 1—7, 1906—13 (Lpzg., 1907—14); Bauer, J. J., Bibliotheca Librorum Rariorum Universalis, 6 v. (Nürnberg, 1770—74); Caspar, C. N. Book trade bibliography and vocabulary of technical terms. (Milwaukee, 1892); Cim, Albert, Le Livre, 5 v. (Par., 1908); Copinger, W. A., Supplement to Hain's Repertorium Bibliographicum, 2 v. (Lond., 1895—1902); Catalogue de la Bibliothèque de feu M. J. Decaisne (Paris, 1883); Dobbs, A. E. Abbreviations, British and foreign, (Lond. 1911); Faulmann, Carl, Das Buch der Schrift (Vienna, 1880); Hain, Ludovic, Repertorium Bibliographicum, 2 v. (Stuttgart, 1826—38); Pellechet, M., Catalogue Général des Incunables des Bibliothèques Publiques de France, v. 1—2 (Paris, 1897); Rouveyre, Edouard, Connaissances Nécessaires à un Bibliophile. 10 v. 5th ed. (Paris, 1899). Valuable aid both in the way of material and definition has been received from many of the more general treatises duodecimo. 12mo. (12°) A book between $6\frac{7}{8}$ and $7\frac{7}{8}$ in. (17.5–20 cm.) high. The older terminology, still in use in Europe, named books from the number of leaves into which a sheet was folded. Thus a duodecimo was composed of sheets folded into 12 leaves (24 p.) each; a quarto, one of sheets folded into 4 leaves each, etc. In such cases, the size of the unfolded sheet is usually also indicated by its trade name, e.g., Crown 8vo, an octavo printed on sheets of Crown paper (15 x 20 in.) In older books, fold only is generally indicated.
