FROM THE DESK OF RABBI MICHAEL D. KLEIN

Isn't it ironic that the month which follows Tishri has no holidays whatsoever? The Sages share a very interesting story about the month of Cheshvan. In Midrash, the story is given that, all the other months have some notable holiday or at least a fast day. The month of Cheshvan was sad but kept its silence. When G-d noticed how sad the month of Cheshvan was, G-d spoke to it and it answered G-d by saying it was the only month with no holidays or fast days. G-d responded to Cheshvan by saying that G-d did this so that Jewish people would focus on the Shabbatot that occur during this month since they contain such important Torah readings: Bereishit-the story of creation, Noach-the story of Noah and the Ark, Lech-Lecha- the story of Abraham and Sarah, and Vayera-the story of the Akedah that we read on Rosh Hashanah.

G-d promised the month of Cheshvan, that because of this, G-d would give Cheshvan an extra name when we bless it the Shabbat preceding Rosh Chodesh by calling it Mar-Cheshvan (Mister Cheshvan) . Cheshvan was so appreciative of G-d's kindness, that it promised G-d that the moon would always shine brighter during this month to show its appreciation.

The next month in the lunar calendar cycle is Kislev, which contains the holiday of Chanukah. In response to G-d's kindness to the month of Cheshvan, Kislev told G-d, that Chanukah would also be shared with the next month Teveth which only has 1 notable day- the fast of the 10th of Tevet. Thus, it teaches us that the kindness extended by one month to the other also reminds us that our kindness to each other must also continue for each month. As we mark each holiday with special celebrations or remembrances, we must also share these with those who need to be taught about G-d's kindness even to the months of the year!

Florida Region FJMC appoints Rabbi Michael D. Klein As the new spiritual advisor.

The Florida Region FJMC (Federation Jewish Men's Clubs) encompassing the entire state of Florida, announces the appointment of Rabbi Michael D. Klein of Temple Torat Emet in Boynton Beach as new Rabbinic and Spiritual Advisor.

"Rabbi Klein was appointed in part for his strong support for the Temple Torat Emet Men's Club and the FJMC's projects and endeavors. They include the FJMC Yellow Candle Yom HaShoah Program which he endorsed with a powerful letter to the congregation and also the FJMC World Wide Wrap partnering with Synagogues around the world; Men's Club Shabbat, and most recently, the TTE Men's Club's Torah on Tap Program," said Ed Kochman, an executive officer of the Region and also a member of the Board of Directors for the FJMC; TTE, and its Men's Club.

Rabbi Klein is a native Miamian and alumni of Miami Coral Park Senior High and Mesivta High School (1972) and University of Miami (December 1975) with B.S. Degrees in Biology and Chemistry and minors and in Education and Music. In 1983 he earned a Masters Degree in Biochemistry and Science Education from Florida International University.

A Note From the Cantor Judge that Tune-Part 2 – Shehu Noteh Shamayim

In light of the criteria I described in the previous issue of the Tekiah, I'd like to discuss a particular text and the tune sung at TTE: the Aleinu prayer and the middle section, which begins with Shehu Noteh Shamayim.

First, some background on the Aleinu. It's one of our oldest prayers. Its authorship is unclear—possibly the prophet Joshua (13th-12th c. BCE) or the Men of the Great Assembly during the period of the 2nd Temple. Others say it originated during the Maccabean period—2nd c. CE. Many point to the Amora Rav, the 3rd c. Babylonian sage, because he is credited with editing the entire Rosh Hashana Musaf, which includes this prayer. The Aleinu opens the Malchuyot section of the RH Musaf. Around 1300 CE, the Aleinu took its additional place as the closing prayer of all 3 daily prayer services. By searching online, you can learn a lot more about this text (look for the spitting part!), which underwent changes from its original version, and some of it was even excised from the rest of the text, beginning in the Middle Ages.

What is the Aleinu about? The 1st section celebrates the distinctiveness of the Jewish people and our faith in one God alone. The 2nd section is more universal, expressing our hope that one day God alone will be worshipped by all humanity.

The Shehu portion in the 1st section follows the text: “We bend and bow and give thanks before the Sovereign of Sovereigns, the Holy One, blessed is God” accompanied by knee bending and bowing. The Shehu itself acknowledges God's creation of the world and God's abode in the highest heaven. And Hu Eloheinu—ein od, “This is our God, there is no other.” These are foundational ideas of Judaism, of which God is the focus.

For historical context, note that in Conservative synagogues, this text and the following paragraph were traditionally not sung aloud at all, but prayed silently. I'm sure many of you can remember back to those days.

Since singing this text aloud has become so common, let's consider what type of melodies are appropriate. If you were to compose a melody for this text, what approach would you take? In the Rosh Hashana Musaf, the melody, based on the nusach (prayer mode) of this part of the service, and the style of singing is grand. In fact, some call it the Great Aleinu.

Now consider the tune used in the closing section of every service at most synagogues (in the U.S. and even Israel), including TTE, where this text is sung. Is it appropriate?

Here is my opinion: The opening phrases don't offend me, but I'd like to go for a tune that expresses the eternal truths of the words, not just avoid being offensive. The end of each musical phrase (on m'romim & l'vavecha), is quite discordant with the text, reminding me of a carnival/circus tune in those spots. The accompanying action by some of bending and rising on one's toes in opposition to one's neighbor's movements disturbs me.

Considering the tune's sing ability, we can say that's not an issue, as its popularity around the world attests to that.

Moving on to the question of whether the tune allows proper phrasing and pronunciation of the words: the phrasing works, and the pronunciation of most words doesn't suffer, but enough words are mispronounced, making it less acceptable for me. If this were an older tune, originally sung with Ashkenazi dialect, like so many of our tunes that worked for that pronunciation, I could accept that. However, the Shehu text was set to this tune probably some time in the 1960's, when Israeli dialect was already making its way into prayer services.

Some people attribute it to USYers who adopted the tune from the song Sink the Bismarck, composed by Johnny Horton & Tillman Franks, based on the pursuit and eventual sinking of the German battleship Bismarck in May 1941 (!). It was commissioned by 20th Century Fox for the purpose of promoting the 1960 British war movie Sink the Bismarck! in the United States. However, the Shehu tune copies only the 1st of 4 musical phrases. Others point out that the tune is a lot like the song The Itsy Bitsy Spider. In fact, the first 2 musical phrases are the same...but not the last two. My conclusion: it's unknown where the tune for this text originated.

Regardless of the origin, as I pointed out in the Part 1 of this article, using borrowed tunes is common and perfectly acceptable in Jewish music tradition. In my view, the other issues are more important, like expressing the meaning of the text and allowing proper pronunciation. And for those who have learned about the possible sources, and consequently think of bombing warships or spiders climbing water spouts when singing the Shehu, this tune might be more than disconcerting.

What are your thoughts?

Now, are there alternative settings out there?

Yes...a few. As I was aware of no other melodies for this text over 20 years ago, I commissioned a new setting from a composer member of my congregation in Evanston, IL, Bob Applebaum. It flows well from the first part of the Aleinu and has a grand feel to it. I introduced it during Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur Musaf this past September. I will begin using it in services after this Tekiah issue is published. I wanted you to have some background first, as it's more than "another tune."

Another setting was composed in 2003 by Rabbi Shira Shazeer, the wife of a cantorial colleague. It has a peppier tempo. I have altered the placement of syllables on the notes here and there to make the Hebrew accentuation more consistent. I'd like to introduce this melody at some point as well.

Just as we have a variety of tunes for many prayers, we'll have a few to choose from for this Aleinu text. Keep in mind, also, that silent prayer is an option. So I ask you to wait for the sh'liach/sh'lichat tzibur (prayer leader), whether it's I or another person, before singing, so you can follow his/her cue. (That suggestion goes for all congregational singing, led by the prayer leader.)

I welcome your feedback on these and other tunes I bring to the community.

Bivracha (with blessing),

Cantor Anita Schubert

RITUAL COMMITTEE

Please support our minyans by participating a few times a month.

Your participation can help ensure they will continue to function for you, should you need or want to say Kaddish. We need your support since just a few congregants are making sure we have a minyan each morning and evening.

TEMPLE TORAT EMET FOUNDATION

Do you know the best-kept secret at Temple Torat Emet?

It's the Temple Torat Emet Foundation. In 2014, Temple Torah merged with Temple Emeth. Temple Emeth had an Endowment Fund and Temple Torah had a Foundation. They were combined three years after the merger of the Temples in July 2017.

The goals of the new Foundation are to provide funding for education and special projects at Temple Torat Emet. Over the years, the Foundation has provided funds for students returning to our religious school, the HIP (Highschool Incentive Program), a Youth Program Coordinator, Youth Initiative, (approved but not used yet), a kitchen remodel, a new sign at the entrance from Jog Road, and Temple Torat Emet staff payroll Covid relief.

Each Spring, the Foundation Board meets to decide which grant applications to fund. A formula is used to determine what percentage of the previous year's income and principal investment is available. because the principle is a finite amount. It can only increase as investments do well or congregants make donations. Our funds are invested with Federation in order to grow.

For the school year 2022-2023, we have approved several grant requests: HIP (teens studying together), Prayer Boot Camp (a program for students and their families to improve their Hebrew reading skills and understanding of the Shabbat prayers and ritual), We are One (a grant that covers some of the tuition for the religious school and shows our commitment to our religious school families), and Growing our K-2 (a grant that covers a portion of tuition for the religious school and shows our commitment for continuing education and association with the Synagogue).

We welcome your questions, your input, and of course, your financial support. All the money donated benefits Temple Torat Emet.

Please consider making donations to the Foundation: as Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA), as a portion of your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD), as a bequest in your will, or as a beneficiary of life insurance. QCDs are not counted as income and provide a tax savings on your tax returns. Any other donations will be greatly appreciated.

This year the Foundation Board members are Steve Gross, Don Porges, Roberta Zinbarg, Ira Brandell, Jonathan Shochat, and Anita Schick. If you are interested in serving on the Board, please let one of us know.

Dear Torah Tot Families,

It is hard to believe that another week of school has passed. The short weeks are coming to an end and soon we will finally have a full week of school! We would like to take the opportunity in this week's newsletter to thank you, our Torah Tots community of families, for making our school so absolutely, incredible. Community is beneficial and essential to quality outcomes of children. Being a part of a community helps develop communication skills, grows confidence, builds resilience, shapes identity, develops lasting friendships, and a sense of belonging. Having a sense of belonging contributes greatly to a child's overall social and emotional development and is an essential aspect of school readiness.

Regardless of our personalities, we all have a desire to connect with others and be part of a group. Our motivation, interests, and happiness are tied to the feeling that we belong to a greater community that shares common aspirations, and that accepts us. With that in mind, we are looking forward to sharing and shmoozing Sunday morning with those of you joining us at our first annual Challah Bake! As you look at the photo below, please kvell at our motivation and the source of our happiness.

REMINDERS:

*School will be closed until Wednesday, Oct. 19th for Simchat Torah.

*Curriculum night will be Thursday, Oct. 27th from 7-8pm- parents only.

Shabbat Shalom,

B'YACHAD RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The holidays are behind us, and we have fallen into our regular routine of classes. Our virtual and in-person Hebrew and discussion sessions have resumed after some breaks in the schedule due to all the holidays. Our students have glided back into the routine. They are learning Hebrew through different curriculum. As with learning any new language, I stress the importance of taking a few minutes during the week to practice and review the Hebrew curriculum with them. Our prayer discussion component for our students is unique and enlightening, not only for the students but for the teachers and me. Listening to comments made by the students is always enlightening. I am so very impressed with the level of knowledge and the interest of our students. Our Sunday in-person classes have been wonderful, filled with many hands-on activities as well as videos, written assignments and visits from our Schlichim.

During our first semester, our students learned about the High Holidays, participated in the mitzvah of being in the Sukkah, and learned and discussed Torah, and Jewish values. By the time you read this, our students and families will have participated in our school-wide Hanukkah experience, as well as had the opportunity to experience the Auf Ruf of two of their own B'Yachad staff members. I want to thank you all for helping me celebrate this wonderful milestone not only in the lives of Marc and Rivkah but also sharing this nachas with me. Our students and faculty are winding down for a much-needed Winter Break and will be looking forward to the second half of the school year. When we return, we will be bringing back some of our successful schoolwide and family experiences, we will begin celebrating and participating in Shabbat services by Grade Level. Please be on the lookout for dates and mark them in your calendars.

I want to once again thank you all for allowing us the privilege of learning together with you children and giving us the opportunity to be a part of our Jewish Journey B'Yachad. If you have any questions, concerns, or comments, or just want to chat, please remember, my door is always open. You can reach me via email at relschooldir@templetoratemet.org.

Sisterhood

Sisterhood

A Year of Reaching Greater Heights!

We hope you enjoyed a meaningful, joyful and spiritual high holiday experience. Prior to the holidays, several women met to create a honey jar and enjoy each other's company. The flow of creative juices and a feeling of fellowship made for a refreshing change from interacting via a computer screen. We look forward to more in-person gatherings going forward.

One such future event will take place on November 17 when we gather to enjoy a lunch and fashion show.

Plans are also underway for our annual Sisterhood Shabbat weekend on January 13 and 14, 2023. Friday night and Shabbat morning services will be led by Sisterhood women, and we'll start the weekend with a delicious and celebratory Friday evening Shabbat dinner.

On February 26, 2023, we will hold a Torah Fund program to highlight and feature this year's Torah Fund pin and stress the importance of this fundraiser: it is a major contributor to the training of Rabbis, Cantors, and Jewish educators.

We received wonderful feedback about the La Cage theater outing, and as a result decided to purchase another block of 30 tickets for a February 9, 2023 performance at the Delray Beach Playhouse titled New York New York, a Big Apple musical memories concert.

The Sisterhood Judaica Gift Shop will be open in November and December on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 11:00 AM – 2:00 PM. We will continue to offer opportunities to shop by appointment; please call Barry Adesnik at 914-772-0484 or Tova Adesnik at 914-772-0492. Come see our fully remerchandised store. We are featuring all Chanukah Judaica items at 20% off (for example menorahs, Chanukah children's books, Chanukah serving platters, Rosenthal Chanukah Judaica). Of course, our beautiful selection of Tallitot are 20% off year round!

We are happy to offer a complimentary one-year membership to all new synagogue members! Let's reach towards greater heights and make this the year of 100% participation as every Temple Torat Emet woman becomes a Sisterhood member!

DECEMBER BAT MITZVAH

Rachel Jennifer Engelberg will become a Bat Mitzvah on December 3, 2022. She is the daughter of Melissa and Adam Engelberg, sister of Samuel, and granddaughter of Louise and Steven Litt z'l (of blessed memory) of Maple Grove, Minnesota, and Malvina and Sheldon Engelberg z'l (of blessed memory) of Lake Worth, Florida. Rachel has been a member of the Temple Torat Emet family for seven years. She is in seventh grade at Woodlands Middle School in both the Cambridge and Medical programs. She enjoys reading; hanging out with her friends and family, baking, and playing with her dogs Charlie and Yuki. Rachel has been working very hard on her Bat Mitzvah Project and is in collaboration with the Quantum House and local area pediatric Oncology Centers to collect new items to create Hope Baskets for the patients and serve meals to the families during their time in treatment. She is collecting news items until she reaches her goal of 180 Hope Baskets delivered. After her Bat Mitzvah, she plans to participate in the Jewish Community through BBYO. Rachel and her family are honored and thrilled to have you here today to help celebrate her Bat Mitzvah.

The end of the year is quickly approaching. Any donations, dues, or other payments made prior to December 31, 2022, are tax-deductible for the year 2022.

Our Synagogue relies on the generosity of our members. We ask that you consider a year-end donation to Temple Torat Emet.

Please send your donation today, or make a donation on our website.

Thank you in advance for your generous donation!

Wishing you and your family a happy, safe, and prosperous 2023.

<https://www.templetoratemet.org/make-a-donation/>

On behalf of the Alpert Jewish Family Service (Alpert JFS), thank you for your incredibly generous donations to our Kosher Food Pantry from your High Holiday food drive. We are extremely impressed with the quantity and quality of the items you donated through your food drive. It is clear that the members of Temple Torat Emet truly expressed a desire to help and support those in need.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, JANUARY 28-29, 2023
OUR 36TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION!

Did you know that Temple Torah was chartered on December 16, 1986? A few individuals held discussions and conducted two meetings to poll members of the community as to their opinions for the need of a synagogue in Boynton Beach. Two months later, the congregation conducted services at the Lions Club in Boynton Beach which was rented for each Shabbat. That was the beginning of Temple Torah!

Over the weekend of January 28-29, 2023, Temple Torat Emet will be celebrating our “Double Chai” Anniversary. We are making the weekend enticing for everyone and will have activities for the young, families, empty nesters, and for seniors.

The weekend begins on Saturday morning, January 28, with a special Shabbat service honoring the past presidents who have served the Temples over the past 36 years. Services will be followed by an enhanced kiddush.

On Saturday night there will be a Cabaret featuring our own Cantor Anita Schubert who has invited other talented Cantors to join her for that evening. After the Cabaret, we will be having a special dessert extravaganza catered by Diamond Caterers.

On Sunday, January 29, at 3:00 pm we are bringing back Rick Recht, a Jewish music pioneer. His innovations in Jewish music have had a profound impact on the fabric of today’s Jewish music. Rick will be including our Wiston Family Torah Tots and the B’Yachad children singing with him in the concert. Adults in the audience will also be rocking along with his music.

To help offset some of the expenses of our weekend celebration, sponsorships are available at the following levels:

Platinum - $540 (includes 4 tickets to the Cabaret)

Gold - $360 (includes 2 tickets to the Cabaret)

Silver - $180 (includes 2 tickets to the Cabaret)

Please consider becoming a sponsor by contacting Barry Adesnik at 561-810-5185.

Ticket information for the weekend will be out soon. So remember to save the dates of January 28-29, 2023 for our 36th Anniversary Celebration.

“On December 11, 1994, groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted on a very rainy but a happy day for the congregation. As we enter a new era of establishing objectives and achieving accomplishments, new people will join or replace those now involved to make further positive imprints on the Temple’s future history.”

Joe Pertofsky, Temple Torah President, 1993-1995
