

The Institute for Higher Education Management is currently looking for a student research assistant for the winter term 2023/24.

Eligible to apply for this position are students enrolled in a Master's programme who haven't completed their degree yet.

The position runs from October 2nd until December 18th, 2023 and entails a flexible commitment of 7-8 hours per week (fully-flexible working schedule).

Your primary duties will include:

- The direct support of institute members in a specific research project
- Assistance in the systematic coding, analysis and evaluation of qualitative data sets (interview transcripts, annual reviews, financial statements and research reports, etc.)

Requirements for the position:

- Enthusiasm for qualitative research/content analysis
- Very precise, detail-oriented and structured way of working
- Very good knowledge of both, German and English (spoken and written). Minor knowledge of Swedish is a plus (but certainly no requirement)
- Ideally, you have already gained experience in computer-aided qualitative data and text analysis (working with programs as NVIVO, MAXQDA or similar)
- Ideally, you have an affinity for the subject areas "Strategic Management", "Strategic Planning", "Performance Management", "Mergers & Acquisitions" and/or "Universities and Higher Education"

Our institute offers you:

- Interesting tasks connected to one of the Institute's core research areas
- A warm and welcoming team atmosphere
- Insights in the academic world
- Networking possibilities for your own, possible PhD-path
- A remuneration of €992.72 is provided for this position (on a work contract basis – "Werkvertrag")

If you are interested in the position, please submit your CV by September 25th, 2023 via email to bernhard.boehm@wu.ac.at.

For further information about the position, do not hesitate to contact the Institute.

We hope to receive your application soon!
